Everyone Can Afford the Luxury of an Electric Fan

If you can afford electric lights you can afford the delightful comfort of an R. & M. Fan. You can buy a splendid home fan for a few dollars, and it will last as long as the best piece of furniture in the house. Its original cost and small operating expense are so low in comparison with the cool, refreshing, zestful comfort it gives that you'll wonder how you ever got through the hot summers without one.

Robbins & Myers Fans

One-half the Current of an Ordinary Electric Light

Think of it. The cheapest method of keeping cool in dining-room, bed-room, living-room or kitchen that has ever been devised. Makes a summer resort out of your own home. An R. & M. Fan is a real necessity when you can enjoy, at such a reasonable cost, the boundless billows of cool comfort that it throws out on scorching summer days. See them at your dealers.

The Robbins & Myers Co., SPRINGFIELD, OHIO

CAN YOU SAVE $1.00 A WEEK?

If so, you can carry $2000 life insurance (age 37). Think what that would mean to your wife and babies if you should be taken away. If you can save it and do not do so and have nothing stored away for your wife, your friends will not excuse you after your death. See John L. Shuff, Manager Home Office General Agency, or Charles J. Stern, General Agent.

His Sermons are GOOD

BUT his Delivery POOR

You often hear this criticism of well known clergymen. They have beautiful thoughts and put them into beautiful words - BUT their delivery leaves a congregation cold and unmoved - They don't get the Power of emphasis into their manuscripts or notes - fine points are lost in monotony of type.

Hammond

MULTIPLEX

Standard "Writing Machine"

literally makes your writing t-a-l-k. With the instantly interchangeable type you write as you think with emphasis on every point, and every climax put into words that pulsate with your deepest feelings. And when you deliver a sermon typed on the Multiplex or refer to notes—you can't fail to get the telling power of emphasis into your delivery—the words stand out at you—you must get them to your listeners with feeling.

Prominent clergymen everywhere praise the versatility of the Multiplex, the only interchangeable type and language machine—the Multiplex typewriter has over 365 different arrangements of type and languages from condensed note size to extended type for headlines—and writes all languages from Sanskrit to Kata Kana Japanese.

"Just Turn the Knob" to change from ordinary type to emphatic Italics or from one language to another.

The Multiplex is the typewriter President Wilson uses personally.

The first paragraph of this advertisement shows a few samples of Multiplex type.

Write for booklet telling of all the marvels of the Machine that has made History—and for special rates to clergymen.

Your Confidence

Means so much to us that the desire to obtain and retain it directly influences every business transaction we take part in

WHEN we buy merchandise our one thought is "will this quality and style measure up to our customer's expectations; will it prove so satisfactory that they will make future purchases with the confidence that they are getting all they are entitled to? This same thought is uppermost when we plan a special event; when we write an ad, when we plan any change in our service equipment; when we engage the services of a salesperson; and unless the answer is an affirmative one, we reject the proposition, no matter what it is.

When you come into this store, we want you to be able to confidently say: "This is one store where I know I will get honest values and fair treatment every day in the year."

SUPERNUMERARY MINISTERS.

Paragraph 187. A Supernumerary Minister is one who, because of impaired health, or other equally sufficient reason, is temporarily unable to perform full work. This relation shall not be granted for more than five years in succession, except by a two-thirds vote of the Conference upon recommendation of the Committee on Conference Relation and a statement of the reasons for such recommendation. He may receive an appointment, or be left without one, according to the judgment of the Annual Conference of which he is a member; and he shall be subject to all limitations of the Discipline in respect to reappointment and continuance in the same charge that apply to Effective Ministers. In case he has no Pastoral Charge he shall have a seat in the Quarterly Conference, and all the privileges of membership, in the place where he resides. He shall report to the Fourth Quarterly Conference and to the Pastor all Marriages solemnized and all Baptisms administered. Should he reside beyond the bounds of his Annual Conference, he shall forward to it annually a Certificate similar to that required of a Retired Minister, and in case of failure so to do, the Annual Conference may locate him without his consent. He shall have no claim on the Conference funds except by vote of the Conference; such claim to be paid out of the necessitous fund.

RETIRED MINISTERS.

Paragraph 188. Every Retired Minister, who is not employed as Pastor of a Charge, shall have a seat in the Quarterly Conference, and all the privileges of membership in the Church where he resides. He shall report to the Fourth Quarterly Conference and to the Pastor all Marriages solemnized and all Baptisms administered. If he reside without the bounds of the Conference of which he is a member, he shall forward annually to his Conference a certificate of his Christian and Ministerial conduct, together with an account of the number and circumstances of his family, signed by the District Superintendent of the District or the Pastor of the Charge within whose bounds he resides; without which the Conference shall not be required to allow his claim, and may, after due notice and due form and record of trial, locate him without his consent.

4. The President shall appoint all committees not otherwise especially ordered by the Conference, but any member may decline serving on more than one committee at the same time.

5. The Secretary shall keep a Journal of all the proceedings, and shall have the same, when approved, printed with the other Minutes of the session, and a copy properly bound and authenticated as the official record of the Conference. He shall take charge of the Journal and other papers of the Conference, and preserve them with care. He shall edit all reports which are to be printed in the Conference Minutes. The Conference Secretaries and Treasurer shall be the Publishing Committee.

10. No member shall be interrupted when speaking, except by the President, to call him to order when he departs from the question or uses personalities or disrespectful language; but any member may call the attention of the President to the subject when he deems a speaker out of order; and any member may explain if he thinks himself misrepresented

11. All motions and resolutions shall be reduced to writing and so presented, if desired by the President or any member of the Conference.

14. Only one amendment to an amendment shall be in order, but then it shall be in order to move a substitute for the main question, and one amendment to the substitute. The substitute, if accepted, shall replace the original motion.

17. No member who has spoken on a pending motion shall have the right to call for the previous question, or to move to lay the same on the table.

18. No member who is not within the bar at the time when the question is put by the President, shall be allowed to vote on any question, except when such member shall have been necessarily absent, in which case he may have his vote recorded, but it shall not count in the decision.

19. The vote on any question shall be taken by the ayes and noes, upon the call of fifty members, and the roll shall be called alphabetically, and an affirmative vote of fifty members shall be required to lay on the table.

Van Pelt, of the Findlay District, were called; the character of each passed, and they read the report of the work on their districts.

C. M. Van Pelt presented his report as Treasurer of the Board of Conference Trustees, together with that of the Auditing Committee, for publication in the Minutes.

League.—The Special Committee ordered on the League of Nations was announced as follows: A. E. Smith, Daniel McGurk, E. O. Crist, W. D. Cole, G. B. Parkin, Hough Houston, G. W. Bunton, G. F. Barber, and George Wood Anderson, and, upon motion, confirmed.

Merged Funds.—C. M. Van Pelt, Treasurer of the Board of Conference Trustees, announced that his report for this year shows $29,893.27 in the Common Fund, and that since his books were closed for the year the sum of $564.60 has been added to that fund, making the total amount therein $30,457.50. He also stated that the action uniting the Central Ohio and Cincinnati Conferences into the West Ohio Conference provided that, when the Common Fund had reached the sum of $30,000, the two funds, the Cincinnati and Common, should be united and administered as one fund. He therefore moved that the two funds be now united and administered hereafter as one fund, and the motion prevailed.

Retired Ministers.—C. M. Van Pelt, on behalf of the Board of Conference Trustees, reviewed the efforts of the Conference through the Board to raise an Endowment Fund of $500,000 for Conference Claimants, inaugurated five years ago. The Board, realizing that the plans which had been pursued were not in perfect harmony with the provisions of the Discipline for the support of Conference Claimants, now recommended that the Disciplinary provision shall be fully complied with in making the apportionment to the charges.

Frank G. Mitchell, Secretary of the Retired Ministers' Association of this Conference, read a brief statement from said Association, calling attention to the work of the retired ministers and their wives in building the Church in the years agone, and also recited the fact that the Board of Bishops in a recent interpretation of the law of the Church on this question, had decided unanimously "that no Conference has the Disciplinary right to vote to ask from the Church a less amount than is necessary to meet the full claim." The recommendation was then concurred in, unanimously.

The following was presented by G. W. Bunton, numerously signed, and, on motion, adopted:

The Board of Stewards shall, for the coming year, apportion the full amount necessary to meet the claim of the Conference Claimants, after deducting from the total the amounts received from other sources. Their report shall be final, and the same shall be apportioned to the churches to be included in Ministerial Fund, as per Discipline.

Appreciation.—The following paper was presented by Frank G. Mitchell from the Retired Ministers:

The courtesy and hospitality of Methodist preachers are proverbial. They have never been shown in a finer fashion than in the fact that the Retired members of the Conference are attending this session as the guests of their brethren in the Effective ranks. Therefore,

Resolved: 1. The members of the Retired Ministers' Association, in gratefully accepting and enjoying this expression of fraternity and good fellowship, wish to record their high appreciation of the generosity of their brethren.

2. We direct our Secretary to convey to the Conference our hearty thanks and assurance of profound interest in all of their labors in promoting the cause of our common Master and Saviour, and pledge them our assistance in every possible way in their increasingly complex work.

The Fourteenth Question was resumed. M. E. Ketcham, District Superintendent of the Hillsboro District, was called, his character was passed, and he read his report. During the reading of the report reference was made to the fact that Edmund Burdsall, pastor at Winchester, had just celebrated his fiftieth year of effective service in the Conference. Brother Burdsall was called to the platform, warmly congratulated by the Bishop and his brethren, and spoke briefly of his work.

D. F. Helms, District Superintendent of the Lima District, passed an examination of character and read his report.

On motion of Jefferson Williams, the Chair was requested to appoint a committee of three to draft and present at the morning session a suitable expression commending woman's sacrifice and service during the war, and requested the Bishop to respond on behalf of the Conference. The Committee was constituted as follows: J. B. Ascham, A. E. Day, and Norman Sweat.

On motion of J. M. Mills, the men of this Conference who were in the service, either overseas or in this land, and ladies also, were invited to occupy the front seats at that hour.

Introductions.—Professor H. F. Rall, D.D., of Garrett Biblical Institute, was introduced and briefly told of the work of that institution.

Charles A. Kelly, D.D., of the Rock River Conference, was introduced and represented the Board of Conference Claimants, concluding by presenting a check for $200 from the Board.

A. G. Schatzman and Earl E. Rhodes, recent transfers to this Conference, were introduced.

Memorials.—On motion of O. L. Seward, the large number of memorials requesting consideration of the Conference were referred to the Cabinet for recommendation.

Transfers.—On motion of D. Lee Altman, the Conference requested the Bishop to transfer from the North-East Ohio Conference to this Conference Charles B. Ketcham and Howard LeSourd, former members of the West Ohio Conference.

Conference Stewards.—On motion of C. M. Van Pelt, the following were elected Conference Stewards: C. W. Hoffman, in place of J. F. Olive; E. L. Motter, in place of W. W. Lance; and W. J. Green, in place of George B. Wiltsie.

Address.—Bishop Anderson delivered his second address, "The Basic Personal Principle of the Kingdom." John L. Hillman offered prayer, and the session closed with the benediction by the Bishop.

THIRD DAY.

Friday, September 5, 1919.

BISHOP ANDERSON called the Conference to order at 8.30 this morning, and after devotional services the minutes of the previous day were read and approved.

Upon motion, brethren who may be called away from the session before the election of delegates shall have the privilege of leaving a sealed ballot with the Secretary.

George W. Bunton moved, and the motion prevailed, that the apportionment for Conference Claimants shall be given to the District Superintendents, they to distribute the same to the pastors.

Drafts.—A draft amounting to $6,949 from the Methodist Book Concern, also a draft for $35 from the Chartered Fund, were presented to the Conference and signed by the officers of the Conference, and handed to the Board of Stewards.

Consolidation.—

WHEREAS, Third Methodist Episcopal Church, Findlay, Ohio, has officially expressed its desire to be consolidated with First Methodist Episcopal Church, Findlay, Ohio; and

WHEREAS, First Methodist Episcopal Church, Findlay, by vote of its Quarterly Conference, has expressed its willingness for, and given its consent to, such consolidation;

THEREFORE, By virtue of the authority vested in me as Presiding Bishop, and under the law of the Church, I hereby consolidate said Third Methodist Episcopal Church, situate on North Main Street, Findlay, Ohio, with First Methodist Episcopal Church in Findlay, Ohio. Title to all property, real and personal, now belonging to said Third Methodist Episcopal Church shall be vested in the Board of Trustees of said First Methodist Episcopal Church; and the full control and management of all the affairs and activities of said Third Church shall be under the jurisdiction and direction of the Quarterly Conference and officials of said First Methodist Episcopal Church of Findlay, Ohio.

WM. F. ANDERSON,
(September 5, 1919.) Presiding Bishop.

The Fourteenth Question was resumed and W. A. Wiant, District Superintendent of the Springfield District, and E. E. McCammon, of the Toledo District, were called. The character of each passed, and they read their reports.

Fifteenth Question, "Who have been Transferred, and to what Conferences?" was asked. The Bishop announced the transfer of John L. Hillman to the Des Moines Conference.

Resolution.—J. C. Roberts offered the following, and it was adopted:

WHEREAS, The Rev. John L. Hillman, D.D., pastor of St. Paul's Methodist Episcopal Church, Toledo, Ohio, has been elected to the presidency of Simpson College, Indianola, Iowa, and is now transferring to the Des Moines (Iowa) Conference;

Resolved, That we, the members of the West Ohio Conference, do hereby record an expression of our appreciation of this most splendid Christian brother, tireless worker, true and faithful minister of the gospel of our Lord, and that we also assure him of our love, prayers, and best wishes for the greatest possible success in the new field to which he has been called; and should he desire to return to this Conference, our hearts and hands shall ever be open to him.

Question Two was taken up, "Who have been Received by Transfer, and from what Conferences?" The Bishop announced the transfer of Charles B. Ketcham and Howard M. LeSourd from the North-East Ohio, George W. Osmun from the New York East, William P. Clark from the West Virginia, and Harley W. Hodge from the Pittsburgh to the West Ohio Conference.

Delegates.—C. M. Van Pelt presented from the Cabinet the plan for the election of delegates to the General Conference, and it was adopted, as follows:

WHEREAS, The General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church will hold its regular quadrennial session in Des Moines, Iowa, in May, 1920; and

WHEREAS, Under the law of the Church, the West Ohio

Annual Conference is required at its present session to elect ministerial delegates and reserve ministerial delegates to said General Conference; and

WHEREAS, Under the law of the Church and the adopted ratio of one delegate to every forty-five members, or two-thirds fraction thereof, the West Ohio Annual Conference is entitled to elect ten (10) delegates and three (3) reserve delegates to said General Conference; therefore,

Resolved, That the West Ohio Annual Conference shall now proceed to elect ten ministerial delegates and three reserve ministerial delegates to said General Conference, according to the following plan:

1. All voting shall be by ballot.

2. In every ballot a majority of all votes cast shall be necessary to the election of each delegate.

3. Two sets of nine tellers, both containing one minister from each district, shall be appointed by the presiding Bishop to receive alternately and count each ballot and to report in writing the result thereof to the Conference in open session. The tellers shall keep the result of each ballot entirely secret until the same is reported in open Conference. In each set of tellers the person first named shall act as chairman.

4. The first bllot shall be the order of the day for Friday, September 5, 1919, immediately following the formal reception of the class into full membership.

5. If necessary, a second and other succeeding ballots shall be taken, counted, and reported at such times as the Conference may order, until all delegates and reserve delegates have been duly and legally elected.

6. When a ballot is being taken, every member of the Conference entitled to vote shall be present and within the bar of the Conference. Every member not so present and within the bar of the Conference when a given ballot is taken shall not be permitted to vote on such ballot except by special action of the Conference.

7. The first ballot shall contain the names of ten ministers eligible to election, and each succeeding ballot shall contain the names of the full number of delegates remaining to be elected at the time such ballot is taken.

8. The tellers are hereby required and directed to reject and refuse to count all ballots, if any, containing a number of names greater or less than the number of delegates to be elected at the time such ballot is taken.

9. Every name upon each ballot must be so carefully and fully written as to indicate clearly the person voted for. Should any name be so illegibly, imperfectly, or incompletely written as to raise a reasonable doubt in the minds of a majority of the tellers counting the ballot as to the intent of the voter, then that name shall not be counted; but if the ballot be otherwise in proper form, then the other names thereon shall be counted.

10. After the ten delegates have been duly and legally elected, then the Conference shall proceed to elect three reserve delegates, observing all the above regulations and requirements in so far as they are applicable to the election of reserve delegates.

11. The chairmen of the two sets of tellers are hereby authorized and directed to provide, at the expense of the Conference, uniform blank ballots with consecutive numbers from one (1) to ten (10) inclusive, printed on the left margin thereof, to be used in electing all delegates and reserve delegates.

The following were nominated by the Cabinet to serve as Tellers, and they were approved—First Set: D. McGurk, A. Smith, J. L. Corley, D. H. Bailey, J. D. Darling, A. E. Monger, Charles Bennett, E. S. Weaver, and L. H. Gressley. Second Set: B. F. Reading, J. C. Roberts, George Parkin, W. W. Motter, C. C. Kennedy, W. J. Green, E. O. Crist, J. R. Troxel, and O. L. Seward.

Fourth Question, "Who have been Received on Credentials, and from what Churches?" was asked. W. McK. Brackney represented William S. Harpster, of the United Evangelical Association, Ohio Conference. Upon motion, the case was referred to the Committee on Conference Relations, and the Committee was excused for deliberation.

Question Six, "Who have been Continued on Trial?" was taken up. (b) In Studies of Second Year: Ernest D. Barker, George W. Eley, Charles N. Fisher, Harley J. Moore, James Carl Plummer, and Charles E. Wintringham were called, the character of each passed, they were represented by the District Superintendents, reported by the Registrar, advanced to the Studies of the Third Year, elected to Deacon's Orders, save E. D. Barker, already ordained, and recommended for reception into full membership. Clyde E. Ruckman was called, his character passed, reported by his Superintendent and Registrar, recommended for admission into full membership, elected to Deacon's Orders, and advanced to the studies of the Fourth Year. Gabino Rodrigues was called, his character passed, he was graduated from the Course of Studies, recommended for admission into full membership, and elected to Elder's Orders under paragraph 163. Vinton E. Busler and Cecil D. Smith were called, the character of each passed, reported by their District Superintendent and Registrar, recommended for reception into full membership, and Brother Busler was elected to Elder's Orders—Brother Smith having been ordained—and graduated from the Course of Studies. Earl A. Seamands was called, also Walter Van Kirk, neither having been before the Board of Examiners, were continued on Trial in Studies of the Second Year. Henry A. Middleton was called, his character passed, and he was continued in the Studies of the Third Year.

The Committee on Conference Relations reported that all the brethren recommended for Admission had complied with all conditions, and moved their admission into full membership.

The brethren were called to the front, asked the usual Disciplinary questions, briefly addressed by the Bishop, and admitted into full membership. C. E. Schenk offered prayer. Upon recommendation of the Conference Relations Committee, William S. Harpster was received as an Elder from the United Evangelical Association, Ohio Conference.

Elections.—On motion, the Conference proceeded to elect delegates to the General Conference. The first set of Tellers was called, the vote was cast, and the Tellers retired to count the same, accompanied by Asa J. Kestle, Assistant Secretary.

Rev. F. A. McCarty, of the Illinois Conference, representing the Commission on Finance, was introduced and briefly addressed the Conference. Austin Philpot and J. B. Jones were introduced and told of the work of the Methodist Children's Home. W. B. Slutes, of the North-East Ohio Conference, representing the Centenary in its conservation work, was introduced, and in turn presented C. A. McLaughlin, Howard M. LeSourd, student pastor of the Ohio State University, and Charles B. Ketcham, a member of the faculty of Drew Theological Seminary, and each spoke regarding their work.

Jefferson William moved that any brother serving as Teller, receiving ten or more votes, shall be released from such service. On motion of Stanley W. Wiant, it was laid on the table.

J. B. Straub, of the Lord's Day Alliance, was introduced and addressed the Conference.

E. C. Wareing, D.D., Editor of the Western Christian Advocate, was introduced and addressed the Conference respecting the importance of the religious press.

Boundaries.—C. M. Van Pelt presented the report of the Commission appointed one year ago on Conference boundaries. J. C. Roberts moved to amend by omitting the harsher terms. J. M. Mills offered, as a substitute for this amendment, that the use of the language be left to the Commission. E. O. Crist moved, as an amendment to the substitute, that the paper be placed in the hands of the delegates to be elected to the General Conference. The substitute, as thus amended, was accepted and adopted by a count vote of 142 to 139. The paper was then adopted.

Upon motion, the report of the Commission was referred to the Lay Electoral Conference for their endorsement. On motion, it was ordered that the report be printed, and that the District Superintendents present the same to the Quarterly Conferences for their approval. E. O. Crist moved that a copy of the same be furnished the Chairman of the Commission on Boundaries of the North-East Ohio Conference, and it was adopted.

The following was offered by A. E. Strother, and adopted:

Inasmuch as a movement has been inaugurated by the Ohio Conference looking toward a division of the State into three Conferences running from the southern to the northern boundaries of the State; and

Inasmuch as such a division seems to us illogical, necessitating expensive moves and large traveling expenses, and unnecessary inconveniences; and

Inasmuch as it would take from the West Ohio Conference some of her most desirable territory, including such cities as Delaware, Marysville, Kenton, Marion, Richwood, Prospect, Upper Sandusky, Carey, Findlay, Fostoria, and Fremont, and other smaller but very desirable charges; and

As this division would tear away both preachers and people from chosen and preferred Conference relations; therefore be it

Resolved, That it is the sense of this body that no change should be made in the present Conference boundaries, at least until such time as it may be agreeable to the interested Conferences to enter into negotiations for a quadruple division of the State into Conferences practically square and approximately equal in extent; and further, be it

Resolved, That after their adoption, a copy of these resolutions be sent to the North-East Ohio and Ohio Conferences for their consideration.

F. I. Johnson, D.D., Executive Secretary of the Cincinnati Area, was introduced and addressed the Conference on the program of the Centenary for the coming year.

It was ordered that when we adjourn it be to meet for a session at two o'clock this afternoon.

D. Lee Altman.—On behalf of the Conference, the Bishop invited D. Lee Altman to the platform, who this day had reached his three score and ten, and presented to him as an expression of the love of the brethren a beautiful bouquet of roses. "Blest be the tie" was sung, and Brother Altman spoke a word of appreciation.

Rev. J. W. Hoffman, D.D., President of the Ohio Wesleyan University; C. R. Havighurst, D.D., of the Ohio Conference, and Grant Perkins, of the North-East Ohio Conference, were introduced.

Women.—The report of the Special Committee on Women's Relation to the War was read by John B. Ascham and, upon motion, adopted, as follows:

In all ages women have accompanied men to battle; sometimes as warriors, sometimes as captives, sometimes as camp followers. In war, as in so many other aspects of life, a new age has dawned. We may have more wars. But, if we arm ourselves to fight again, it will be to crush that people who selfishly and foolishly assails the brotherhood of mankind.

In such wars women should accompany men. Our war with the Central Powers has shown us what women can do to keep the spirit of fine civilization alive in the midst of brutal carnage. The women who ventured into the fighting areas to release, by their labors, soldiers for the trenches, who nursed the sick and wounded, who cheered the homesick and the lonely, and who by their fine womanly conduct kept alive in American men the memory of pure, dear women in the homeland, have laid upon the manhood and womanhood of America an undischargeable obligation.

But there were not only women who went into the great war; there were also millions of America's fine womanhood who sent their dearest treasures into the training camps and across the seas. They said good-by to fathers, husbands, sons, brothers, and lovers with smiling faces. What strange souls our women comrades are! They shed tears, but the tears stealing down across their faces could not wash out the smiles. Their breaking hearts cried "Stay!" but their cheery lips said "Go!" It was an aching fear in all of them that they might not see their soldier again. But they sent them forth that their sisters for the future should not need to repeat the painful sacrifice. They said, "We will ascend this Calvary, that the women of distant ages may have no Golgotha." They went down into the grave in behalf of the womanhood of the world.

Therefore, in acknowledgment of the patriotism, the painful sacrifices, the high courage, the unfaltering faith, and the lofty idealism of our women—the women of our fair country who went into the and the women who sent into the war—we hereby express our unrestrained and undying appreciation of America's noble womanhood.

J. B. Ascham.
A. E. Day,
Norman Sweat.

Philanthropies.—The following paper was presented by W. A. Robinson and, upon motion, adopted, and the delegates to be elected to the General Conference were instructed to look after the same.

The West Ohio Conference respectfully memorialize the General Conference to be held in Des Moines, Iowa, May, 1920, to create a Commission on Philanthropies, which shall have charge of the hospitals, homes for the aged, and orphanages of our denomination, with a view to securing for them a place among the authorized collections of the General Conference.

The session adjourned with the benediction.

Afternoon Session

Pursuant to adjournment, the Conference reassembled at two o'clock, and after devotional services the result of the first ballot for delegates to the General Conference was announced as follows:

W. D. Cole having received 203, W. A. Wiant 172, C. M. Van Pelt 167, and E. S. Weaver 145, were declared elected.

Others received votes as follows: A. E. Smith, 133; O. E. Smith, 133; D. F. Helms, 126; W. H. Wehrly, 123; V. F. Brown, 118; W. J. Dunham, 115; D. McGurk, 103; E. E. McCammon, 99; J. F. Olive, 98; W. McK. Brackney, 91; C. C. Peale, 74; C. E. Schenk, 71; B. F. Reading, 70; F. E. Higbee, 58; M. E. Ketcham, 58; J. B. Ascham, 54; G. W. Bunton, 52; Jesse Swank, 47; W. A. Robinson, 33; A. B. Anderson, 10; H. Houston, 10; and 68 others received one or more votes.

Second Ballot.—A second ballot was ordered, the vote was cast, the ballots collected, and the Tellers retired.

The Secretary asked for instructions regarding the publication of the entire report of the Boundaries Commission, and, on motion of A. B. Austin, the Conference ordered a summary not exceeding one-half page in the Minutes.

The report of the Commission on Boundaries, as presented by C. M. Van Pelt, was a most vigorous, convincing, and unanswerable argument against the proposal of the Ohio Conference to redivide the State and take certain territory from the West Ohio and the North-East Ohio Conferences. Briefly summarized it may be stated as follows: 1. The attitude of the Ohio Conference in the past on the question of boundaries. 2. From the standpoint of justice to all concerned. 3. The interests of Methodism in Ohio would be jeopardized. No stronger protest, it seems, could be voiced.

On motion of Charles Bennett, the Board of Examiners was directed to meet at the conclusion of this service to examine such brethren as are applicants for Local Deacon's or Local Elder's Orders.

The order of the day having arrived, the program for the Centenary Institute was entered upon. Rev. C. H. Fowler addressed the Conference on "Conserving and Developing the Spiritual Resources of the Church." H. A. Truesdale spoke on "Christian Stewardship, a Continuous Program." Charles P.

McLaughlin discussed "Conserving the Centenary Financial Pledges," and E. D. Bancroft spoke on "Enlisting the Laity in the Work of the Church."

On motion, Daniel Carter was excused from further attendance of the session on account of illness in his family.

J. M. Mills and W. A. Robinson, upon motion, were appointed a committee to escort the Lay Electoral Conference to this place.

Fraternal.—Bishop Anderson called attention to the fact that at a recent meeting of the Miami Conference of the United Brethren Church in Christ, in Dayton, Ohio, Warren J. Dunham and Geo. W. Bunton had been in attendance bearing fraternal greetings from this body, and that there are now in attendance upon this session fraternal delegates from that Church, and introduced Dr. J. G. Huber, pastor First United Brethren Church, Dayton, and Rev. W. M. Van Sickel, Secretary of the Miami Conference, who briefly addressed the Conference, bearing warmest greetings from their Church.

Upon motion of D. J. Starr, George W. Bunton and the Secretary of this body were appointed a committee to express the pleasure of this Conference upon the visit of these brethren.

Joint Session.—At this juncture the Lay Electoral Conference appeared and were escorted to seats reserved for them. The Conference received them standing, heartily singing "Blest be the tie that binds" and "Faith of our Fathers." E. F. Layman, President of the Lay Electoral Conference, was presented by the Committee to Bishop Anderson, who in turn introduced him, and he interestingly addressed the Conference. On behalf of the Conference the Bishop responded. C. A. Collin, first lay delegate, and Judge J. M. Killets, lay delegate, were presented to the Conference and spoke briefly. Walter D. Cole, first ministerial delegate, was introduced and interestingly addressed the Conference. E. R. Graham nad E. E. Shipley, lay delegates, were introduced and made brief addresses.

The session closed with the benediction.

Evening Session.

Rule Nineteenth.—On motion of D. J. Starr, the following sentence was added to Rule 19: "and an affirmative vote of fifty members shall also be required to lay on the table."

Bolshevism.—Bishop Anderson delivered an exceedingly informing and thrilling address on "Finland's Estimate of Bolshevism."

The following paper was offered by J. W. Holland and adopted:

Resolved, That this Conference tender its sincere thanks to Bishop Anderson for his excellent address.

C. W. Blodgett moved that the Conference request as full an excerpt of the address for publication in the Western Christian Advocate, and also the daily press, as possible.

W. H. Wehrly presented the following, and it was adopted:

Having heard with great interest and profit the masterly presentation of Bishop William F. Anderson in a "Study and Review of Bolshevism in Finland," and believing that this paper should be given the widest possible reading, we request that it be given to the Associated Press for publication.

The Tellers returned, and the result of the fourth ballot was announced as follows: Whole number of votes cast, 268; defective, 3; counted, 265; necessary to a choice, 133. V. F. Brown, having received 139, was declared elected.

Mrs. James P. Simmonds, wife of our pastor at Urbana, Ohio, sang a beautiful solo, "Fear ye not, O Israel."

The Tellers returned and the result of the fifth ballot was announced as follows: Whole number of votes cast, 251; defective, none; necessary to a choice, 126. Daniel McGurk having received 157 votes, and Warren J. Dunham 135 votes, were declared elected.

The Bishop retiring during the address of Dr. Murdock, D. Lee Altman was appointed to preside. At the conclusion of the address the session closed with the benediction by W. C. Nash.

The Fourteenth Question was resumed. The Bishop called by districts, and the character of the Effective Elders in all the districts was passed save in the case of J. J. Hawk, of the Hillsboro District, which was, upon motion of M. E. Ketcham, referred to the Committee on Conference Relations.

W. A. Robinson, Financial Secretary of the Christ Hospital and Elizabeth Gamble Deaconess Home Association, was introduced and in his inimical way represented the work of the institution. C. E. Schenk, to be hereafter associated with the work of the Training School, briefly addressed the Conference.

The Tellers returned, and the result of the first ballot was announced as follows: Whole number of votes cast, 223; defective, 2; counted, 221; necessary to a choice, 111. There being no election, a second ballot was ordered and taken, and the Tellers retired.

Walker were discontinued at their own request. Charles W. Sultzbach was called, his character passed, was represented by his Superintendent and the Registrar, and continued in Studies of the Third Year.

Pierce, recommended by the Findlay District Conference, after being represented by the District Superintendents and Registrar, were elected to Local Elder's Orders.

Thirty-sixth Question was asked, "Where shall the next Conference be held?" Upon motion of D. Lee Altman, the matter of place was referred to the Commission on Conference Entertainment.

He moved that the sale be approved and the money paid to the Treasurer of the Conference Board of Trustees, to be administered under the provisions of the Discipline, and the request was concurred in.

William McK. Brackney reported the sale of the Amrine church building and furnishings, an abandoned church connected with the Raymond charge, for $226, and moved that the sale be approved and the money paid to the Treasurer of the Conference Board of Trustees, to be administered under the Discipline, and it was approved.

Mrs. Anderson, wife of the Bishop, was presented and told of the work in which she and the Cincinnati Home Missionary Society are deeply interested; that is, the Mothers' Memorial Social Center.

Appreciation.—W. H. Wehrly, on behalf of the District Superintendents, presented the following appreciation of Bishop Anderson, and it was adopted by a unanimous rising vote. The Bishop made an appropriate response. "Blest be the tie" was sung, E. L. Waldorf, D.D., was introduced, who also gave the benediction, and the session closed.

Resolution.—

Trusted, efficient, masterful leadership in church or nation at this hour is an honor second to none on this planet.

Methodism has produced leadership equal to every emergency. Not all men occupying equal official position are equally efficient therein.

The Cincinnati Episcopal Area is not only the greatest in Methodism, but one that demands the very highest type of leadership.

By whatever standards adjudged, by whatever comparisons instituted, whether in respect of modern vision, a knowledge of world conditions studied at first hand, or as a prophet of the new order, the resident Bishop of the Cincinnati Area for nearly two quadrenniums—Bishop Wm. F. Anderson—may have a few equals, but certainly no superior among our chief leaders. His constantly growing strength has been compellingly manifest to us all, and never more so than at this session of the West Ohio Conference, which marks his last presidency for this quadrennium.

In view of these facts, and the further fact that at the next General Conference assignment of Bishops will be made for the next ensuing quadrennium; therefore be it

Resolved, That we, the members of the West Ohio Conference, record our high appreciation of the administration and leadership of Bishop William F. Anderson, with every assurance of his most gracious welcome should his reappointment to this area be made by the next General Conference.

Resolved, That the West Ohio Conference requests its delegation to the General Conference to present the cause of the Retired Ministers' Association to the General Conference to the end that this Association may have recognition in the Discipline amongst other societies of the Church, to the end that branch Societies may be organized in other Conferences, and that the fellowship of retired ministers may be thereby increased and extended.

Furthermore, being convinced by the experience of the past two years that the Summer School of Theology is of such value in the training, efficiency, and inspiration of the young men who attend this school, we recommend that the District Superintendents be respectfully requested to bring to the consideration of the young men the great importance of their attendance upon this school. Also that the matter of their attendance be presented to the First Quarterly Conference, asking the Quarterly Conference to encourage and support the young men by making provision for their attendance upon this school.

Since a wise, zealous, and sustained interest and activity of the laymen of Methodism are essential to the life of the Church, we hereby express our conviction that some form of a Lay Annual Conference is highly desirable. In general, such Lay Conference should meet at the seat of the session of the Ministerial Annual Conference and remain in session at least two days. Such interests of the Church as immediately concern both clergy and laity should require the action of both Conferences. Matters of such mutual interest might originate in either Conference. It is hereby Resolved, That this proposal be presented as a Memorial from the West Ohio Conference to the incoming General Conference.

Sale.—Following recess, Conference reassembled at 5.15. Upon motion of M. E. Resolved, That where such changes are contemplated, the District Superintendent may call two neighboring District Superintendents, and the three may act as a Committee to confer with the Community Committee of other churches in planning for a readjustment, by which we will retire from certain places in response to the other Church retiring from certain other places. Reports.

a. DISTRICT SUPERINTENDENTS.

CINCINNATI DISTRICT.

W. H. Wehrly, District Superintendent.

A MODERN CITY is at once a great organism and the world in miniature. It holds the best and the worst of humanity. Therein may be found the wisest and the most ignorant; the most law-abiding and the most anarchistic; the most religious and the most irreligious; the most patriotic and the most revolutionary; the most conservative and the most radical. Right has long had its uncompromising champions; wrong has long been entrenched. Reforms and betterments are not accomplished over night; vice and crime do not instantly flee at statutory mandatories. Whether or not all these antitheses are to be found in Cincinnati, it is only fair to say that there is incomparably more good in Cincinnati than she has been ever accredited with. There is developing a notable change in what may be called the collective viewpoint. That a new world order is upon us is candidly, seriously, yet optimistically admitted. Orderly acquiescence in the state and national mandate for a "Dry" regime is nowhere more in evidence than in Cincinnati. Valuable properties throughout the city have already been transformed and reconstructed to house legitimate business.

The judgment is humbly expressed that in this hour of restlessness and possible peril, our great church should bring its repeatedly affirmed "Social Creed" out of its place of obscurity in the Appendix of the Discipline and place it at least as near to the heart of humanity as Article XI on "Works of Supererogation" or Article XIV on "Purgatory." Never in the history of the church or nation has a year been so crowded with crises and emergencies. What with the world war drawing to a decision, with drive after drive for Victory and Liberty Loans, campaigns for Red Cross, Y. M. C. A., War Chest, War Relief, and appeals to pastors to preach on every conceivable topic, with the world scourge of influenza, which closed our churches for seven to ten weeks and hung the black pall over thousands of homes, including fifteen parsonages in the Cincinnati District, in two of which strong and vigorous pastors fell its victims—Bros. U. G. Humphrey, at Pleasant Ridge, and James M. Bailey, at Delhi, besides three retired veterans—Drs. Pearson, Lease, and West, together with the death of more than one hundred members of our churches in the District at large—the memory of it all is a haunting one, indeed. With this setting of unprecedented circumstances, no more unpropitious time could be imagined in which to launch and attempt to carry forward the Centenary campaign. We were delayed again and again by orders from the Department of Health forbidding public assembly.

Finally, all that could be humanly done was accomplished under the most adverse circumstances. Our district quota was $604,000. Eighteen churches, long non-self-supporting, were apportioned quotas so staggeringly impossible as to take the heart out of them, and a few made no effort whatever. All quotas apportioned emphasized the fact that the four-factor basis is inequitable, unscientific, and provocative of criticism, and should be revised and put upon a sound basis. From first to last more than thirty men from the Area and General Organization came to Cincinnati to assist in the organization and canvass, and pronounced the task and the field and the circumstances the most difficult they had encountered anywhere. By reason of an official statement issued from the New York headquarters concerning credits for designated gifts, our credits were affected under that ruling to the extent of $470,250 specifically pledged, and most of it promptly paid to eight different objects covering practically every continent and properly within legitimate Centenary objectives. We have confidently insisted, and do yet insist, upon the credit of these vast amounts given in direct response to the Centenary appeal, and when so credited, we report more than $250,000 above our district quota of $604,000.

Our constructive objectives in Cincinnati contemplate first of all the enlargement of our great work in the West End, now known as the Freeman Avenue and Good Will Industries Church. A three story building is already full to overflowing with religious, social, industrial, and employment activities, and a branch has been opened on State Avenue to help house our activities until adequate quarters can be provided. Industrial machinery to the value of approximately $5,000 will soon be fully installed and in operation, and a staff of from twelve to fifteen workers, under the supervision of the pastor-superintendent, Rev. R. E. Scully, will be kept busy with administration work, including a deaconess force of workers who direct kindergarten, mothers' meetings, domestic science, home visitation, and Americanization work and other helpful ministries, all serving as means to the end that some may be won to Christ. Other Centenary objectives such as community centers, a great central downtown church, and departmentalized plant, will be undertaken as opportunely as developments warrant and justify.

Would it not be timely to remind ourselves of the challenge to our sense of justice and equity and fair play, to say nothing of humanity and brotherhood and Christian spirit—in respect to the forgotten battalion in the midst of all our drives and campaigns, namely—the retired veterans? The Centenary is calling for 53,000 choice young people for life service, but what a spectacle to see the old guards—the veterans whose very life-blood was put into the kingdom struggle to help bring about the possibility of success, going "West" into the gloaming without assured or adequate protection or place in the great program of the church.

A word as to Institutional Methodism in Cincinnati.—Christ Hospital is one of the great institutions of our church. Notwithstanding its comparatively recent enlargement, its capacity has been taxed continually and hundreds have of necessity been turned away. The Elizabeth Gamble Deaconess Home Association has never been more fruitful in Christ-like ministries. The Cincinnati Missionary Training School will be reorganized upon another basis under highly competent supervision. The Home for the Aged, under highly efficient administration, has made for itself a new and higher place in the confidence of its patrons these last two years. Our people are awakening more and more to the good work and helpful influence of the Western Christian Advocate. We commend it to all our people without stint of praise and urge upon our pastors to exploit its helpfulness at every available opportunity to the end that its influence may be extended to the homes of our members to the fullest number possible.

The official home of the District Superintendent is in the midst of the large Book Concern family. For, verily, the family idea is emphasized. In office and factory a large and efficient force is employed. The welfare of this working force is constantly looked after. Working under the eight-hour day plan, the entire plant has Saturday afternoon the year round for rest and recreation. The employees of the Manufacturing Department are paid time and a half for overtime and all are paid for the legal holidays and all are paid in full during absence from work on account of sickness. Group insurance has been in force for some years now, whereby each employee has his or her life insured for an amount equal to the yearly wage, not in excess of $2,400.00 The Book Concern pays the premium. Under a plan inaugurated by the Resident Agent, a form of collective bargaining prevails whereby all employees are represented by Group Representatives of their own selection. There are many social features also tending to foster the family idea: the annual outing each summer and in the winter "Indoor Outing." In closing this reference, allusion must be made to the patriotic zeal and fervor with which the several war drives were supported. The whole institution is an illustration of practical efficiency and Christian social service in concrete form.

DAYTON DISTRICT.

W. J. Dunham, District Superintendent.

Another Conference year has come and gone, bringing many changes. During the year one of our retired ministers, J. Raper Hunter, received his crown. He was a faithful Gospel preacher. He was loved and honored by all. The widow of the saintly R. K. Deem was also called home. While the ranks of the active ministry were unbroken by death, a double sorrow came to Rev. and Mrs. J. R. Troxell, at Bethany. Their daughter, Elizabeth Wellman, and their son-in-law, Walter Moesta, were victims of the dreadful influenza. The first two or three months of the Conference year were practically lost on account of the epidemic of influenza. All of the churches were closed for five or six weeks; consequently we were late in getting started on the Centenary program. But regardless of this thirty-three charges out of thirty-seven went over the top. The district went over with a safe margin. The main subject for consideration at the First Quarterly Conferences was ministerial support. We took seriously the action of the Lay Association at our last Conference. We were asked to make $1,200 and house rent the minimum salary of our Conference. The amount paid the pastors this year on the Dayton District will be $6,196 more than that of last year.

To those who are assigned to charges in the Dayton District, I now promise that the average salary, including house rent, will not be less than $1,736. If we deduct house rent, we promise an average cash salary of $1,534. We have not only increased the salaries and put over the Centenary, but we have built churches, remodeled old buildings, paid debts, and canceled mortgages. The New Victory Church, known as Ebenezer, was dedicated by Bishop Anderson on Easter Sunday. After preaching, eleven thousand dollars was raised, more than enough to complete payment on a twenty thousand dollar structure. Much credit is due the pastor, J. W. Wurtz. The church at Lytle was remodeled at a cost of $2,000. The members of the church at Gordon built a room for social purposes and completely transformed the old structure at a cost of $3,000. Brookville, on the same charge, improved their property at a cost of $1,500. Lebanon paid on old indebtedness $1,200 and made improvements to the amount of $1,000. Broadway, Dayton, is now free from debt. During the year they have raised $500 for improvements, $2,400 to cancel the debt, and went over the top for the Centenary by thirty-five per cent. Seven hundred dollars were spent on the improvement of the Lewisburg property. Homestead Avenue, Dayton, improved their church at the expense of one thousand dollars. Concord and Mainville made improvements. Riverdale Church officials have purchased a lot on north Main Street. In the very near future this congregation will build a church in keeping with their needs. The work on the new Grace Church is progressing. The congregation is worshiping in a temporary structure near the site of the new building. The success of the services held in this building confirms the wisdom of the move. Improvements planned for Middletown Methodism will cost $65,000. This amount has been subscribed and the work will be done in the near future. Lindenwald, Hamilton, has plans for a $15,000 addition.

There will be but a slight increase, if any, in church membership. The fact that membership was one of the factors that determined the Centenary apportionments, caused the officials in many churches to insist upon cleaning up the church records.

While the Centenary program was intended to cover every phase of church activity, including a drive for new members in January, the one thing to which pastors and people gave their attention was the securing of the pledges. We are now ready for the campaign for the one million new members. The reports from pastors indicate good results from our Stewardship campaign and the enrollment of Intercessors, but we are greatly disappointed in our results for recruits for Life Service. Our comparative failure in this last requirement certainly proves that revival fires must be started on our altars, in our homes, and in our churches.

We have had several conferences with representatives of four denominations. We have discussed plans to consolidate Protestant churches in small towns.

The success of the centralized school in many townships has caused the officials of one circuit in the Dayton District to ask for the privilege of trying the same plan with their three churches, which happen to be in one township. They will hold services in the central church for two or three months, and if it proves a success they will make it permanent. The other churches will be sold and the proceeds will be used to remodel the central building.

A condition that has been caused by the Centenary and one that must be carefully considered if Centenary interests are to be conserved, is confronting us in a few churches. They raised their Centenary apportionments, but in doing that their chief supporters went to the limit even with their tithe. It is going to require unusual loyalty on the part of such people to continue to contribute for the support of work in other communities, when it is so greatly needed in their own. This is only one of the many problems that have developed since we have been engaged in our forward movement. Experts, as such, must not alone determine the future policy of the Methodist Episcopal Church; nor be so much in evidence in the prosecution of the program. Those who are on the firing line see and hear things that can not be seen from a convention platform or heard on the Conference floor. The man who occupies the most humble pulpit as well as the pastor of the great city church is needed, and his opinions should be carefully considered at this critical moment in our church life.

I desire to express my appreciation of the work done by the Minute Men. Mr. W. A. Pierce, of Dayton, was the energetic leader of this wonderful organization on the Dayton District. If we can secure the aid of this company of men for the evangelistic campaign we are certain of a gracious revival of religion.

In closing this report I wish to thank the pastors and their wives for their loyalty and kindness to me during the year. With gratitude to God for spiritual and physical strength, making it possible for me to have a small part in the work of the year, I submit this report.

DEFIANCE DISTRICT.

J. F. Olive, District Superintendent.

In entering upon this new work a year ago a careful survey of the field made apparent the necessity of facing up to two large and serious propositions—the "Flu" and the Centenary Campaign.

The ravages of the former continued unabated until it claimed many victims. Great anxiety and uneasiness were manifest. People forsook the assembling of themselves together; some churches were closed for weeks at a time. As a result many of our pastors were prevented from holding special services during the winter; some, however, were able to conduct evangelistic meetings with very encouraging results.

In the face of this unfortunate condition that hung like a pall over the land, the Centenary was ushered in upon us; it too made many sick. A remedy was forthcoming which strengthened faith, stimulated interest, and inspired courage. At first many accepted the remedy with reluctance, but its effect was soon apparent in producing a disposition to assume Christian obligation. Many were influenced by the treatment to become Christian stewards and some to sign up to devote their lives to Christian service exclusively.

The remedy to which I refer is Intercession and Information. The results achieved in the campaign through which we have just passed warrant the conclusion that the same treatment will be equally effective in the new drive soon to be made for a million souls. Without these we fail; with them our success is assured.

The Defiance District pastors betook themselves to distributing literature and urging upon their membership the necessity of prayer, with a courage and a confidence that never fails of results. One brother pastor who had exhausted all human means without a cloud larger than the hand of a man to encourage the prospects of an outpour, resorted to prayer, public and private, in behalf of his congregation and their relation to the great world need, when suddenly, as if by divine inspiration, the congregation rose up under competent leadership and pledged the full quota at a Sunday morning service. To show their appreciation of their pastor's persistency and faithfulness they assumed one-half of his pledge to the Centenary, granted him a three weeks' leave of absence to attend the Summer School of Theology at Delaware, and during his absence called together an appreciation meeting and voted a substantial increase in his salary for the next year.

We have confidence to believe that the hand of God was in this great movement and also that there is scarcely no limit to the ability of a wide awake, red-blooded, consecrated Methodist preacher when he wills to do a thing.

Two district conferences were held, at Fayette and Continental, in October and June. One in preparation for the Centenary campaign and the other to celebrate its victorious conclusion. Thirty of our thirty-five charges achieved the coveted distinction of going over the top. The district as a whole surpassed the allotment of $376,420 by about $22,000. This was very gratifying in view of the fact that sections of the district were exhibited on the screen at Columbus last winter in the Centenary meeting as an example of backwoods, undeveloped territory in missionary activity.

The effect of the Centenary in the various departments of church activities is unquestionably in evidence in giving to the people a vision of the world need and their obligation to the same, stimulating interest in church and Sunday-school attendance, debt paying, improvements, and increasing support of pastors. Debts aggregating $10,000 have been liquidated. A beautiful church at Edon, costing $27,000, was dedicated by Dr. A. E. Smith in November. Also another at Zone, on the Tedrow Charge, in April, costing $6,000; Daisie Church on the Second Church (Van Wert)

Charge, partially destroyed by cyclone, was rebuilt, enlarged, and dedicated May 18, at a cost of $2,700. A comfortable parsonage purchased and paid for at Haviland, at an expense of $1,000. Middlepoint has taken steps toward building a new parsonage. Asbury Church, on the Scott Charge, is being remodeled and will be ready for reopening in November. Napoleon has $20,000 subscribed for church repairs or rebuilding. Montpelier and West Unity are both planning additions to their churches in order to make more adequate provision for their growing Sunday schools.

Nineteen churches increased their pastors' salaries during the year, the aggregate increase being $3,200. A few churches will require some outside assistance if an advance in salary cannot be secured. A number of charges will report the largest benevolent collection in their history, independent of the Centenary.

It would be difficult to find a more enthusiastic company of Christian young people than those who have been in charge of the district work of the Epworth League. Several group meetings were planned at the beginning of the year but abandoned on account of the "Flu." A very interesting and well attended district meeting was held at Van Wert March 9. The League work of the district culminated in a tri-district meeting at Arcadia, June 24 and 25.

The Woman's Foreign Missionary Society, Woman's Home Missionary Society, Ladies' Aid, and Helping Hand have done splendidly. Some have so far surpassed their former records that apprehension is entertained as to their ability to successfully succeed themselves in office.

Our churches are reorganizing to meet what we trust will be the last invasion of the old-time and greatest enemy of school and church and home—the un-American brewers. We are working and praying that after the November engagement with these gigantic dispoilers of human happiness we may be able to announce in the language of Commodore Perry, "That we have met the enemy and they are ours."

Death visited the parsonage at Middlepoint and took the wife and mother, Mrs. C. D. Chiles, from her home and household cares into the Master's presence. Hers was a life full of good deeds; a beautiful, consecrated spirit, devoted to family and church. Undismayed at her disappointment in getting to go as a missionary, she did the next best thing: devoted much of her time for the extension of the kingdom of God through organization of missionary societies.

With gratitude to God for sparing our lives and to the brethren for encouraging our hearts, this report is respectfully submitted.

DELAWARE DISTRICT.

WM. MCK. BRACKNEY, DISTRICT SUPERINTENDENT.

Within a few weeks after the close of the last Conference session, three pastors of the district had responded to the country's call; Brothers Albert E. Day and George B. Parkin as Chaplains, and Brother E. L. Bias as member of the Officers' Training Camp at Camp Zachary Taylor. The early signing of the armistice quickly brought about the discharge of Brother Bias and he was soon back at his work. But Brothers Day and Parkin were assigned to special posts of duty and their places had to be permanently filled by other men. The Rev. A. G. Schatzman, of the Ohio Conference, was appointed by Bishop Anderson to William Street, and the Rev. Aura Smith, of Delaware, supplied the York Charge.

A few weeks after Conference I discovered that Roundhead Charge, which had been assigned to J. W. Forsythe as a supply, was without a pastor, the man assigned to it having never appeared on the charge for service. The Rev. G. M. Webber, a retired minister of the Southern Illinois Conference, faithfully served the charge until compelled to give it up. Brother Lemuel Rice, of this Conference, finished out the year.

An unusual number of deaths have occurred in the homes of ministers. Rev. John M. Schultz, an honored retired member of this Conference, was laid to rest on November 9. On December 24, the Rev. Ira Richards, who, though only a Local Preacher, had supplied charges for seven years, was called home. On January 12, the Rev. J. J. Finlay, an aged retired member of this Conference, slipped away from earth to be forever with his Lord. On May 3, Vera, the beautiful daughter of Rev. and Mrs. E. A. Strother, of Wesley Church, Marion, fell asleep in Jesus. On June 2, the Rev. Kelly L. Smith, and on July 22 Mrs. Eason, wife of Dr. James N. Eason, pastor at Richwood, passed away. Our revivals were greatly hindered for the most part the past year by the influenza. However, many of the pastors had excellent meetings and a goodly number of accessions. Among the largest were Epworth, Marion; First Church, Kenton; First Church, Bellefontaine; First Church, Marysville; Agosta, Kenton Circuit; Asbury, Marion, and two points on the Raymond Charge.

The outstanding event for the year, however, has been the Centenary. With the exception of three or four charges there was but little organization beyond that of Minute Men. The real heroes in this great campaign were the pastors, supported most encouragingly by the group leaders. At the beginning of the year, our pastors were almost depressed with the bigness of the task. Their first conviction was that it could not be done. Presently a new light dawned upon us. Our pastors and our people soon saw in the doctrine of the stewardship of life the stewardship of time and the stewardship of possessions, the very doctrine and the much needed doctrine which the church had been, to a large extent, overlooking for a long time. They began to preach it. The bigness and the pressing importance of the world-task loomed larger, so that when the pastors went to the people for their subscriptions, it became one of the easiest tasks that we have ever faced. Instead of a quota of $411,235 for Delaware District, we have almost $450,000. The group leaders and helpers were D. H. Bailey, F. M. Swinehart, J. A. Hoffman, W. S. Culp, O. L. Utter, A. G. Schatzman, W. J. Green, and C. E. Howard. All but seven of the thirty-five charges have gone over the top.

Our Problems.

Two pressing problems confront us in this district. One is the problem of the two churches in West Marion and the other is the rural problem. We have three churches in Marion: Epworth, Wesley, and Asbury. The first is well located and is moving splendidly. The other two are badly located and demand immediate attention if Methodism is to keep her place in that Methodist city. The Erie and Big Four railroads divide west Marion into what is commonly known as north-west and south-west Marion. The latter has about 10,000 people and the former about half that number. Wesley Church is on the north side of the south-west section; is near the railroad and around it is a rapidly increasing foreign population. The residence section for this territory is south and west of the church. We need there a mission for the foreigners, but the building for our own people ought to be moved farther south. At the same time Asbury Church is much too far to the north-west of the north-west section. It ought to be brought out nearer the center of the district and on a better street. In both cases the people are too poor to do the work themselves and unless help shall be forthcoming immediately, we tremble for the ark of Methodism in west Marion.

Our rural problem is different. The churches are there and the people are there, but something is wrong. The churches in many places are either dead or on the decline. A great revival is needed. But is there not more needed? When you have plenty of money, a large number of automobiles, and plenty of places to go to, may it not be true that too few services in a community becomes the entering wedge for Sabbath desecration? Yes, I want to be distinctly understood, along with swearing and the use of tobacco, Sabbath desecration is a sin that has become greatly aggravated since the war began. In my judgment, these communities need more services, some new methods, and a lot of the old-time preaching of the old-fashioned doctrines of Methodism. I am a thorough convert to the new teaching of community churches and community service, but I am not a believer in the theory that old-fashioned evangelism is to be abandoned. It is perfectly proper to teach the children and raise them up in the church, but at the present time, in most communities, the majority of the parents are out of the church and so are the children. Children can not be raised up in the church with a spiritual vision and not have Christian homes in which to nurture them. How are these Christian homes to be secured? In reply, I would say we need the old-time unction to preach, the grace of God to convict and convert them, and then more services, more preachers, more community service. Social service is greatly needed, but men also need conversion. The two must be combined.

In these trying times our religion will not fail. Necessity may drive us to our knees, but there we shall find the God of victory.

FINDLAY DISTRICT.

C. M. Van Pelt, District Superintendent.

Despite the fact that the year has been abnormal in many respects, reports sent me by the pastors indicate a very fair increase in church membership. The fear of influenza in the winter, the fine weather in the summer, and the reaction from war throughout the year have tended to disorganize and deplete the Sunday schools. The District Epworth League is quite active and effective. Many of the local chapters are doing fine work, while a few are more or less indifferent and inefficient. The annual Epworth League Convention of the Findlay, Lima, Defiance, and Toledo Districts was held within the Findlay District at Arcadia on June 24 and 25, 1919. A most pleasing and profitable program was presented. The two District Conferences of the year were quite largely attended. Formal programs were not rendered, but instead the conferences were devoted to the promotion of the Centenary campaign.

Within the year repairs and improvements have been made in the following charges and in the amounts named: Ada, $100; Arlington, $85; Bettsville, $400; Bloomdale, $310; Columbus Grove, $200; First Church, Findlay, $2,000; Forest, $80; Fostoria Circuit, $490; Howard, Findlay, $1,000; Hoytville, $340; Kalida, $100; LaFayette, $2,300; Harpster, $65; Marseilles, $100; McCutchenville, $120; Ottawa, $1,350; Pandora, $1,888; and Upper Sandusky, $120.

Under the skillful management of the pastor, Rev. F. B. Osborne, a new community church has been built at Arcadia. A beautiful structure, Ionic in architecture, of brick and stone, and cost $36,000. On May 4, 1919, Dr. Albert Edwin Smith was called to the task of raising an indebtedness of $19,000 and dedicating the church. The full amount in bankable notes, bearing six per cent interest, was secured and the church dedicated free of debt. Brother Osborne has served not only as pastor but also as superintendent of construction. His laymen gave him most loyal support. The charge has substantially expressed its appreciation of Brother Osborne and his work by increasing his salary to $1,400. At Pandora a parsonage, just adjoining the church, has been purchased for the sum of $2,300, all of which has been subscribed and much of which has been paid. This charge has made phenomenal progress financially within the last three years, advancing from a salary of $650 without parsonage to a salary of $1,400 and parsonage for next year. Rev. W. E. Chiles, the pastor, is deeply appreciated and an advance in salary of $200 for next year is made to secure his return. At Sugar Grove, on the McGuffy Charge, plans have been adopted and subscriptions taken for the purpose of building an addition to the church, adapting it to modern Sunday-school and community work. At Harpster the Methodists and Baptists are uniting to erect a new church to serve the needs of that village and countryside. Heretofore the Baptists have had a small brick church on a corner lot. They have now deeded their lot and building to the trustees of the Methodist Episcopal Church, and steps will at once be taken to erect a modern church on the site to be known as the "Harpster Community Church." While it will belong to the Methodist Episcopal Church, most of the Baptists of the community will enter its membership and share in its activities. They are to be most heartily commended for the broad-minded and wise policy they have followed. The pastor, Rev. R. B. Coleman, has been most tactful and efficient in accomplishing the union of the two churches. The Rushmore Charge will be divided at this Conference, Rushmore itself going into the Lima District and Vaughnsville becoming a station paying $1,000 and house. A new parsonage costing $5,000 is now under construction at Vaughnsville. Rev. M. K. Strickler, a supply, has served the Rushmore Charge during the year. The old Third Church and McComb Charge will also be changed. Third Church will become a mission served by First Church, Findlay, while Portage Chapel and Shawtown will become the McComb Circuit, paying their pastor $1,000 per year and renting him a house in McComb.

During the year, Rawson Church has paid $2,460 on its indebtedness. Financially, Bradner has had an exceptional year. In addition to raising more than twice its Centenary quota, it has fully paid off its old church debt; it has subscribed $500 to the Children's Home at Worthington, $400 for Flower Hospital, $25 for the Armenian Relief Fund, $200 for the Anti-Saloon League, $30 for the Salvation Army Fund, and $150 for other minor benevolent purposes. Besides doing his full share in raising the above sums of money, Brother G. M. McNeeley, the pastor, has conducted thirty-eight funerals during the year and carried forward all the other activities of the charge. But one charge in the district has decreased its salary for next conference year, dropping from $1,100 to $1,000 and house. Many other charges have substantially increased their salaries for next year. But the increases made fall far short of being commensurate with the high cost of living. If in the future the church is to command the service of strong, equipped, efficient men for the accomplishment of the most difficult and the most supremely needed task in the world, she must double many of her salaries and quadruple some of them. This church, by which we are being so delightfully entertained, has increased its salary for next year to $3,000 and has unanimously requested the return of Dr. Peale. Last session, Dr. James W. Gibson retired from active work in the pastorate because of impaired health. On February 8, 1919, he passed out into the Great Unseen. The interment was in the beautiful cemetery near that city, where he served his last pastorate.

I come now to the most trying task and the most splendid success of the year, the Centenary campaign. The work and weariness, the prayers and pleas, the revelations and revulsions, the trials and triumphs of that campaign can not be tabulated. Here I can only give its results in figures, as follows: total quota, $363,279; total subscribed, $395,047; excess, $31,772. First Church, Findlay, subscribed $1,070 for Third Church, Findlay. In Beaver Dam Circuit all the churches fell below their quotas, leaving the largest deficit of any charge in the district. In Gilboa Circuit both churches failed to raise their quotas. In LaFayette Circuit, LaFayette and West Point Churches raised more than the quota, but Liberty and Ames Chapels fell so far below that the charge is forced into the deficiency column. In Mt. Blanchard Circuit, Mt. Blanchard Church exceeded its quota but Houcktown came short, so placing the charge among the deficient. Ada and Marseilles had somewhat unduly large quotas, but they raised them, and Ada has the honor of going beyond.

I am deeply grateful to the loyal laymen, to the self-denying, self-sacrificing pastors, and to the group chairmen, Brothers W. A. Smith, C. C. Peale, C. C. Kennedy, W. N. Shank, and W. N. Roberts, to whose generous giving, hard work, and wise management the success of the Centenary campaign in the district is to be attributed.

With profound gratitude to the pastors of the district for the delightful hospitality they have extended to me in their homes and for the loyal support they have given me in all the work of the district, and with sincere regard for all my brethren in the ministry and laity, this report is respectfully submitted.

HILLSBORO DISTRICT.

M. E. Ketcham, District Superintendent.

To put it mildly, the past year has been a strenuous experience for preachers and people alike. Its experiences have varied from the anxieties of war to hilarious joy of the armistice; from the terrible scourge of the influenza to the varying experiences of the Centenary drive; from the isolation of the quarantine to the splendid scenes of the Centenary celebration. Nearly every parsonage home on the district was invaded by the epidemic. Some were seriously sick and several, fearing they had not been sick enough, tried a second experience. But in the good providence of God all recovered. We only have to record the passing of two from the fellowship of earth to the eternal fellowship. Mrs. Charles N. Fisher, the wife of our pastor at Manchester, after a few days of suffering passed to her reward April 13. She had always been a help to her husband in his work, and her passing left the parsonage sad indeed. The last of July Mrs. Susan Purkhiser, widow of the late Rev. M. G. Purkhiser, who died in 1875, passed away at the advanced age of eighty-eight years.

The material interests of the church have not suffered because of the calls in Centenary lines. Three parsonage debts have been paid, at Greenfield, Batavia, and Hamersville. Improvements to church property have been made amounting to over ten thousand dollars. It is worthy of note that there is at the present time less than $2,500 indebtedness on church property in the entire district.

The evangelistic work of the year has been greatly hindered by the repeated quarantines. In this district this work has centered almost entirely in the revival meeting. The churches in the hills look with considerable questioning on any method that does not get the sinner down on his knees to pray through. When the quarantines prevented the holding of the usual revival meetings it left the churches without much work in this line. The churches report over 600 additions.

With the organization of the District League, the work among the young people has taken on new life, showing advancement in the number of chapters, in membership, and in interest.

Of course, the year's work culminated in the Centenary propaganda. The League of Intercession enrolled about 2,000. The challenge to become stewards of God in property was answered by over 500 signing the tithing cards. The young people are catching the spirit of life service and a number are consecrating themselves to God's work. It would, indeed, be a strange thing if the Hillsboro District should fall short in furnishing recruits for life service. By the efficient help of Brother Edmund Burdsall, I have the names of more than 175 men who have entered the Conference from the territory of the present Hillsboro District. The same spirit is still found in our churches. In the Centenary drive for money, I greatly regret to say the district did not reach its quota, but it was not from lack of effort. We did, however, reach the sum of $310,000, which is far beyond what the people of the district expected to reach at the start. In the upper half of the district nearly every church passed its quota, while in the lower half, with a few noble exceptions, the churches did not reach their quota; not because they were not able in most cases, but because so many absolutely refused to accept the vision or to respond to the call, in spite of all the pastors, aided by workers from the Columbus office, could do. Notwithstanding we did not reach the quota, the Centenary movement has been of inestimable value to the district, bringing a new vision, new standards of giving, and new confidence. Many churches have been awakened to unsuspected possibilities in their work.

Perhaps the first manifestation of the new spirit is shown in the increase of salaries in sixteen of the charges last year, and a number of charges have already taken action increasing the salary for next year.

The work on this district has been retarded by conditions inherited from the past, when Methodism gloried in the fact that by its circuit system it supplied every little hamlet with church services. Small churches were multiplied, and in many instances placed with County seat towns or other stronger churches as afternoon appointments, while the entire work paid less salary than the central church should have paid. These larger churches need a man's entire time. We have been planning a reconstruction of the entire district so that these larger churches may have the chance for development they need. That we may deal with the situation wisely, and with a larger measure of influence, we have taken the first steps toward organizing a Hillsboro District Rural Society, as provided for by the last General Conference.

With this session of the Conference Brother Edmund Burdsall completes fifty years of work in the ministry. The Winchester church honored him and honored themselves by celebrating the event with a fine reception, which was attended by several hundred of his friends. He has completed fifty years of unbroken and honorable service and his brethren and a host of friends are glad to pay their tribute of loving appreciation to him and his noble wife while they are still active in the Master's work.

When I see the self-sacrifice of some of the parsonage homes, the limited resources in the face of plenty, I can but admire the loyalty of the preachers and their faithful wives who, with heroic effort, have kept at the work and maintained the spiritual life of the community. They are worthy of more than this world gives them.

I wish to express my personal appreciation of the fidelity with which the pastors of the district have so generally supported the work and the plans of the year. Amid many trying conditions the pastors have given the most earnest support to the work. The same loyal support in the great evangelistic plans for next year will, we believe, result in the most far-reaching work ever done on the Hillsboro District.

LIMA DISTRICT.

D. F. Helms, District Superintendent.

The year has been fleet but full of victory. All the pastors were early in their fields of labor, eager for the great constructive program of our Methodism. The fall District Conference, held in St. Marys, gave assurance of the success of the movement, and was a great inspiration to all. But plans that were then made had to be changed on account of the Flu epidemic, and the pastors later had to face the double task of Centenary work and revival campaigns. The ministers, too, had their share of suffering and disability; but death did not invade the family of any pastor.

Dr. W. W. Lance, who, after forty-seven years of unbroken service in this Conference, took a retired relation at our last session, was called into the fellowship of the church triumphant October 16, 1918. He returned from Conference ill. Pneumonia soon developed, and he was doubtless one of the first victims of the deadly influenza. Dr. Lance was a diligent student and seeker after truth, a clear thinker, a master of words, a forceful writer and speaker, and a loyal defender of the faith.

Though the Centenary rightfully held the chief place in the thought and work of the pastors, other interests were not neglected. The plans for an aggressive evangelistic campaign early in the year had to be changed. Nevertheless, many charges were blessed with gracious revivals, resulting in hundreds of conversions. Not a few were also won by personal work in places where special meetings were not held. Lima District is in full accord with the call for one million converts and accessions by June, 1920, and plans are already made to carry on.

A study of conditions at the beginning of our superintendency revealed the need of a more adequate support for many of our pastors. Ten of them were receiving less than $1,000—some as little as $600. The average per capita giving to the apportioned benevolences was also found to be very low. A campaign of education on the rights of the ministry, the needs of the world, and the financial obligations of the people to the Lord's work, was inaugurated. As a result no charge this year paid its pastor less than $1,000 and parsonage, and the total increase, counting what is already promised for next year, is fully $11,000.

The advance in benevolences has been better still. Some charges were giving as little as twenty-three cents per member to the apportioned benevolences, and the average on the district was 50 cents. Splendid increase was made the first two years. The amount pledged through the Centenary campaign exceeds six dollars per member annually, and charges that formerly reported less than fifty dollars a year are bringing to Conference this year hundreds, and some even thousands of dollars.

During the Centenary financial drive miracles were wrought again and again. The District "went over the top" before the end of the intensive campaign, and its quota of $415,000 was exceeded by $50,000. At the same time pledges were secured for a $15,000 new church at Botkins, on the Anna Charge, and for new parsonages at Elida and Epworth, to cost fully $5,000 each. Many improvements were also made and provided for, and nearly all old debts were either paid off or covered with good subscriptions. The largest debt-raising was at Sidney, Grace, Lima, and St. Marys. All but six charges secured their Centenary quotas. Celina exceeded hers by fifty per cent. Trinity raised $100,000, a surplus of $28,000. Not less than $65,000 was secured for debts, new buildings, and improvements in the district. With one exception, no charge pledged less per year for the Centenary than it paid in cash to its pastor last year. Five of the six sub-district groups raised their quotas, the one exception being very near the goal. Every charge in the Celina group, led by

E. L. Motter, went over the top. The first charge in the district to go over was Bradford, where also a new church, worth $20,000, was dedicated early in the year, for which thousands of dollars were raised.

A second session of the District Conference was held in Second Street Church, Lima, during the first part of June. The key-note was evangelism. The Sunday schools, which suffered much during the fuelless winter last year and because of closed churches this year, are gradually regaining lost ground. The Women's Missionary Societies have had the best year in their history. The Ladies' Aid Societies are prosperous. The Epworth Leagues are giving a good account of themselves, and the young people are usually most loyal. The Minute Men's organization has been of great worth in arousing the church. There is no manifest demand within the bounds of the district for the admission of laymen to the annual conferences. There is the feeling that if they are to come in they should meet certain moral, spiritual, and intellectual tests before being admitted.

The year has been one of unusual toil and travel. As superinitendent I visited often many of the charges, soliciting Centenary subscriptions in all save two or three. I have been glad to share with my brethren in all hardships and sacrifices, and have received from both laymen and ministers alike the utmost consideration and kindness. And for their sakes and the kingdom, "I count not my life dear unto myself, so that I might finish my course with joy, and the ministry, which I have received of the Lord Jesus, to testify the gospel of the grace of God."

SPRINGFIELD DISTRICT.

W. A. Wiant, District Superintendent.

More great happenings have been crowded into the Conference year just closing than in any other in recent centuries. The influenza scourge at the beginning of the year; the collapse and overthrow of autocracy as represented by the Central Empires; the abolition of the open legalized saloon and the miracle of National Prohibition; and then the mighty triumphs of the Centenary. Springfield district has shared in all these. We suffered and sorrowed because of the influenza; we helped loyally and sacrificially to promote liberty and to dethrone the infamous liquor traffic; and we have raised our quota and more for the Centenary. Our total gifts to the latter reach the splendid sum of $586,340. We report 1,143 tithers; 2,891 intercessors; 111 Life Service volunteers. While many obstacles were in the way of special evangelism, yet through the impulse of the Centenary, largely, we will be able to report 734 conversions and, in spite of almost a savage revision of membership rolls in six charges, where losses aggregating nearly five hundred have been announced, we believe we shall have a slight net increase in membership. Salaries were increased on twenty-three charges at the beginning of the year aggregating $3,310, and for the coming year twenty-eight charges will increase to the amount of $6,350. It is our intention to carry out the instructions of the laymen last year, that no Conference member shall receive less than $1,200 and house. Improvements have been made in twenty-three charges, totaling $27,495, the most notable being First and Trinity churches, Xenia; Grace, Urbana; Union Church, on Union Circuit; Mechanicsburg; King's Creek; and Concord, on the Westville Charge. A fine new parsonage is under construction at New Carlisle, with means in hand to complete it, and it will be ready for occupancy in the late autumn. Parsonages have been purchased at both Grace and Story-Hypes Churches, Springfield, and negotiations are pending for one at Clifton Ave. Troublesome debts have been paid off at Waynesville and Arcanum; while the obligations against Grace Church, Piqua, and Central, Springfield, have been much reduced. New enterprises are ready to be launched at Grace, Springfield, and Catawba; the former a Sunday-school unit for a great community church, to provide for the rapidly growing Sunday school, and the latter a community center. Westville will remodel and also build a community center. Endowment funds are reported from thirteen charges and amount to $38,200, invested in Liberty and industrial bonds and other forms of securities. The church and parsonage property at Osborn have been bought by the Miami Conservancy Board, and after payment of some debts on the parsonage, have $12,900, which is invested in Liberty Bonds and industrial stocks. A nominal rental only is asked for the use of the church, and a comfortable home for the pastor is rented of the Conservancy Board on reasonable terms. There have been no changes from the printed list of pastors at the last Conference, though additions by birth of three children have gladdened as many homes; a son to Brother J. H. Denney, and daughters to Bros. L. C. Radley and S. R. Dunham. Two deaths have occurred during the year: Mrs. Eleanor Kalbfus, widow of Rev. Chas. Kalbfus, serene and saintly soul; and Mrs. Della Weaver, wife of Dr. E. S. Weaver, of High Street, Springfield, a beautiful mother, after living in intense physical suffering, passed into the presence of the Savior.

Eleven retired men, veterans of the cross, live in the District, every one a blessing. A like number of widows of our ministry are with us also, and upon them rests the "beauty of the Lord." The work of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society and Woman's Home Missionary Society has greatly prospered under the aggressive leadership given to both district organizations. Directed by the militancy of the Rev. J. H. Denney, the District Epworth League has made very satisfactory advancement. An autumn and summer meeting were well attended and profitable. The Sunday schools of the district have been greatly quickened by Centenary activities and, we believe, will show a marked advance along all lines of Sunday-school work. The autumn meeting of the pastors had to be canceled because of the influenza scourge, but a most inspiring series of District and Sub-District meetings were held preceding the intensive Centenary campaign.

We rejoice that all our men in chaplaincy positions in the great war have returned to us sound and unhurt and ready to preach. And never has there been a time when men with a real message were more needed; a message which the preacher so firmly believes and which so firmly possesses him that his soul is on fire to deliver it and to develop in others the faith which has become his ruling passion in life. This means that the pulpit must have a faith which admits of no quibble, based upon spiritual experience, an inspiration to the believer. No abstract theory, doctrine, or creed can inspire such a faith. It is a soul-stirring slogan sent out for us for the year immediately before us. "A Million Souls for Jesus Christ and Methodism!" The world must not flounder along for another two thousand years quarreling and fighting, gaining a little here and slipping back as much yonder, because it has had no anchor for its soul except that which has been based upon theory and creed. We need the voice of prophets of the living God, who have received their message, as it were, in living, vital communion, behind the cloud on Sinai. I believe with Phillips Brooks that "there must be a man behind every sermon, and behind that man must be the spirit of the living Christ." We need less avoidance of the multitude, less difficulty of approach, less looking for obeisance. We need to be emptied of the faintest semblance of selfish desire for ease and worldly aggrandizement and to become in reality a servant of the people, as was our Lord before us and as our Lord is now. There is nothing human beings want so much as love, and nothing will win but love.

We need the comrade heart, that understands,
And the warmth, the living warmth, of human hands;
Not polished words, nor that cold charity,
Which shuns men's misery;
But such care as was in Him, who walked in Galilee
Beside the silver sea; a patient guide who understands
The warmth, the loving warmth of human hands.

TOLEDO DISTRICT.

E. E. McCammon, District Superintendent.

Last year we began our report by stating that there had been no deaths and no changes. As the bells, on the first Sunday, were calling you ministers to your pulpits, we were preparing to hold the funeral services of Rev. H. C. Burger, pastor of our church at Prairie Depot. A little later came the sad intelligence that Dwight, the eldest son of Rev. and Mrs. J. O. Hillery, had died of a bullet wound received while in the service of his country. Then in July we conducted the funeral services of Mrs. Newton, the aged widow of Rev. Isaac Newton. On July 27, the wife of Rev. L. B. Smith, pastor of our church at Cygnet, passed to her reward.

The death of Rev. Burger led to the following adjustments: F. S. Miller from Cygnet to Prairie Depot, and L. B. Smith from Grand Rapids to Cygnet. A. E. Delanoy, retired, was appointed to Grand Rapids. Rev. J. W. Reynolds asked to be released from Liberty Center to teach. D. C. DeGroat took the place; health failing, we released him and appointed Rev. J. D. Parker. Shortly after Conference, J. B. Ekey, of Delta, received his commission as Chaplain in the U. S. army, and H. W. Hodge, of Washington, Pa., was appointed.

Two of our splendid young men and their esteemed wives go to the mission field. E. A. Seamands and wife have sailed for India, and H. F. Zierer and wife will sail for the Philippines in a few days. The transfer of Dr. John L. Hillman from St. Paul's to the presidency of Simpson College, Iowa, is a distinct loss to Toledo.

Wesley (former Spring St.) was renovated, repaired, and decorated at a cost of $7,000. Dr. A. E. Smith, who never fails, quickly found that amount, and the building was dedicated. A new site will be secured and a $40,000 community center building erected to administer to the 10,000 people living in that section. Ours is the only evangelical church there.

One morning last winter three churches in Toledo were afire at the same time; Clark St. was one of them. Repairs have been made, a new $2,500 pipe organ purchased, and the auditorium will be opened next Sunday with all money provided for—the Centenary quota raised and $2,000 over. Waterville paid $2,500 on debt, provided for the remaining $4,000 in good subscriptions, and raised their quota.

St. Paul's has been redecorated and repaired at a cost of $6,000 and raised $20,000 more than the Centenary quota, and brings to Conference $20,000 in cash for benevolences. Euclid Ave. raised her quota and provided for the last $5,000 of a debt of fifteen years standing. Monroe St. had one of the most gracious revivals of her history, received eighty-six members, raised her quota, and provided for the $10,000 debt.

Collingwood received fifty members by letter and forty by probation; coupled the $18,000 debt and the Centenary quota, $16,000, and both are provided for. Broadway paid $1,400 on debt. St. James $500 on debt; increased pastor's salary $400. Central added $400 to the pastor's salary; received one hundred and six members; purchased the residence in rear of church for $5,000, and has over $20,000 on subscription for Centenary and an addition to the church. Fremont raised about $2,000 above the quota and added $11,000 with which to purchase a new parsonage. This church was the recipient of a munificient gift of $5,000, the income from which is to be divided equally between the local Womon's Home Missionary Society and the current church budget. The donor is Colonel Webb Hayes, son of the late Ex-president Rutherford B. Hayes, and the gift is to be a memorial to his mother.

Epworth has in good subscriptions $50,000, to be held as a nucleus for a new auditorium to be built next summer. Waterville, Perrysburg, Elmore, and St. Paul's have each installed moving picture outfits. Bethany was first to raise its Centenary quota, paid the last $1,500 of indebtedness on the beautiful church, and increased the pastor's salary $200. Gibsonburg reached her quota and $2,000 over for church repairs. Trilby raised $900 for a new church. Metamora, Elmore, Oak Harbor, Perrysburg, Rossford, and Swanton also raised their quota in full.

Flower Hospital has had its struggles but it has closed the year without a deficit. Much of this is due to our very competent superintendent, Miss Vogler, and to the fact that Toledo has a War Chest from which we received $12,000 to assist us in training several additional nurses and to take care of charity patients. Dr. G. A. Reeder, the financial secretary, has had a successful year, and secured gifts aggregating $17,000. A very valuable lot adjoining the property has been purchased.

The Boy Scout organization is growing more and more popular. This may be a blessing and it may not. The organization could be made a valuable asset to the boy problem if we could secure all consecrated scout masters. But there are some Masters who seldom, if ever, attend church services; who continually suck at coffin nails; take the boys on hikes on Sunday; and start to camp and return on Sunday, thus teaching them by example, if not by precept, that church services are unimportant. Brethren, we ought to teach our boys the Bible as well as scout tactics. We ought to teach them to pray as well as to swim. To be first-class Christians as well as first-class scouts.

The riotous manifestations of the industrial unrest seem to be centered in our un-Americanized foreigners. Therefore the movement to Americanize every man, woman, and child has been started none too soon. But no one is truly Americanized who is not Christianized. The essentials of Americanism are the essentials of Protestant Christianity. Simply to teach a man English and the meaning of the tax duplicate will not Americanize. We must find the man's soul. It must be changed from a foreign soul to an American soul. But we will never be able to create in him the American soul so long as we allow him to transfer his own customs and institutions and mother tongue to our soil. If the public school is a bulwark of our nation, the parochial, which is a foreign institution; is a menace. If, as our Supreme Court has held, our civilization is founded on the Bible, then the sect or creed that withholds that book from the people is an enemy to our civilization.

BROTHERHOODS.

The great undercurrents of modern life are moving toward brotherhood. Men have been dying in order that brotherhood may be realized as never before. The church should give to the world the highest type of fellowship. Your committee makes the following specific recommendations:

1. The men of the church should constitute a real brotherhood, an organism in which the principles of Christianity may find expression in terms of unified life.

2. These men should be in vital connection with the life around them. They should know that it is their supreme business, their high calling, to extend the boundaries of Christian brotherhood until all who will shall be included.

3. Our Brotherhoods should invest their full strength to perpetuate a dry State and a saloonless nation.

4. President Wilson calls upon us to "maintain the church" in these testing days. This is a challenge to our men. It is our patriotic duty as well as our Christian privilege to keep the church strong. It is the home base of moral supplies.

5. We have helped to win the war. It was a contest of ideals and there can be no abiding peace until righteousness and justice are established in the world. This means Brotherhood. Let the men of Methodism accept the world program of Jesus Christ without reservation, and dedicate themselves to the task of building his kingdom on earth.

Respectfully submitted,
C. A. COLLIN, Treasurer.

The Flower Deaconess Home and Hospital has gone through a most trying year owing to the influenza among the nurses, together with the high cost of living. Two splendid graduate nurses were in the service of the Government, Miss Pollock and Miss Hazel Peabody. Their families have named rooms in their memory. Because of crowded conditions and lack of room, we urge the Board of Trustees to complete the hospital and build the Nurses' Home at the earliest possible date. The hospitals were not put into the Centenary and must therefore depend upon the loyalty of the churches. We recommend to our pastors and people that they help this splendid House of Mercy at this crisis. In making wills our people should insert the exact corporate name of the institution. We heartily commend the State and National Methodist Hospital Association, and the memorial to the General Conference asking for a standing committee to consider the interests of our eleemosynary institutions. Dr. G. A. Reeder reports that during the year more wills, estate notes, and annuity bonds have been secured than in any previous year. Two splendid properties have been purchased for additional room. We hereby commend the valued services of Dr. Reeder and gratefully recognize his faithful and untiring devotion.

"Resolved: That the House of Mercy shall have a hearing in the churches from the pulpits of her territory; that the pastors coöperate with her representatives, and the people be urged to give them a sympathetic and responsive hearing." We recommend for election as members of the corporation of The Flower Deaconess Home and Hospital for the term of three years the following: J. G. Kuehnle, R. A. Landers, and J. W. Holland, and for two years, E. P. Breckenridge, to take the place of J. L. Hillman, resigned.

CONFERENCE BOARD OF EDUCATION

The Board of Education of the Methodist Episcopal Church stands forth in purpose and effort in the preparation of the young life of Methodism for the largest efficiency for life's work. Under the added resources made possible by the gifts and interests of the great Methodist Episcopal Church the board is able to take its place in meeting the challenges of the hour for trained leadership in Christian constructive world-service. We endorse with enthusiasm the work being done under the executive management of Dr. Abram Harris.

Too much emphasis cannot be given to the work represented by this board, and we urge every pastor to observe the special days to be given to the consideration of Christian education, especially making most of the Children's Day observance. We pledge our coöperation to the board.

Ohio Northern University.

The Ohio Northern University presents a splendid report for the past school year. Despite unfavorable conditions in educational institutions, this university came through the experiences with slight depletion of revenues and with honor in service rendered to the Government. More than one thousand of its splendid youth were enrolled, and twenty-two men and women gave their lives for the flag and freedom.

The university graduated a class of one hundred and thirty last May, and was glad to welcome back many of its sons who had heard the guns of battle. Special attention is called to the Colleges of Law, Pharmacy, Engineering, with their complete equipment. Special attention will be given those preparing for teaching in the enlarged College of Education. Music, Expression, Liberal Arts, Business, and Agriculture will be cared for as indicated by these departments. We have a special mission in this school to the young men and women who properly value life and are seeking preparation for it. Special gifts have been frequent during the past year, notable among them a farm of 200 acres, worth $40,000.

We nominate the following as trustees of the university, terms to expire 1924: C. M. Van Pelt, E. J. Brookhart, and W. E. Putt; and W. W. Morral, to fill vacancy of J. F. Freese, term to expire in 1920.

Ohio Wesleyan University.

Ohio Wesleyan University is justly the pride of Ohio Methodism, and under the new program of building and enlarging both of equipment and organization, the best years are yet ahead of this institution. Under the leadership of Dr. J. W. Hoffman and a well-organized faculty, supported faithfully by the trustees, this coming school year will be the best.

We nominate C. E. Schenk and H. S. Bradley to succeed themselves, terms to expire 1923, and E. O. Crist and G. W. Dubois as trustees to succeed themselves, their terms of office to expire in 1924.

Our Theological Schools.

Drew Theological Seminary, Boston University School of Theology, and Garrett Biblical Institute cannot be surpassed in facilities, equipment, and qualified faculty for the direction and training of the young ministry and Christian workers for any and all fields of Christian service. In these days when special preparation and training are essential to meet the world crisis these schools should have an emphatic interest for everyone preparing for lifework.

We nominate the following as visitors to the schools: Drew Seminary—C. E. Schenk, A. J. Kestle; Boston School of Theology—W. F. Martin; Garrett Institute—W. E. Putt, Charles Bennett.

Cincinnati Missionary Training School.

It is a matter of delight to learn that the Cincinnati Missionary Training School will be continued upon the lines which have characterized it in the past—scholastic, evangelistic, and missionary. Dr. C. E. Schenk will be in charge of the executive phase of the work.

The Wesley Foundation.

The students' work at Ohio State University grows in importance and direction. Its effort is to meet the great challenge of the 1,636 Methodist students at the university. It will be aided in the future by an Interdenominational School of Religion that will provide courses in Bible, Missions, and Religious Education. A full-time professor will be in charge. A Methodist girls' club has been installed with the aim of making each student of to-day an effective worker in the church of to-morrow.

During the past year the emphasis has been upon life service. Three have gone to the foreign field this summer, and three have entered Christian work at home.

To support the School of Religion and to provide adequate resources for an effective religious program, the West Ohio Conference is requested to contribute the sum of $1,300 of a total budget of $3,800 to be shared among the three Annual Conferences of Ohio. We recommend that that sum be granted from the 80% of the public educational collection of the Conference. We recommend W. A. Wiant, W. D. Cole, and J. B. Ascham as members of the Conference Commission for the Wesley Foundation; and Elmer E. Sawtelle and Warren A. Myers as lay members of the same commission. We recommend that W. A. Wiant serve as the Methodist member of the Board of Control of the Ohio School of Religion. We heartily endorse the work of the Wesley Foundation under the leadership of our own fellow worker, Rev. Howard M. LeSourd.

Conference Board of Education.

In order to correct both the personnel and the district arrangement of the Conference Board of Education, we recommend and nominate the following arrangement:

Term to Expire 1920: Cincinnati District—J. B. Ascham, president; D. D. Woodmansee, C. E. Schenk, C. L. Swain. Dayton District—G. W. Bunton, secretary; W. H. Meck, J. C. Shaw, Thomas Harvey. Defiance District—C. A. Moore, S. W. Howey, E. O. Crist, B. J. Emery.

Terms to Expire 1921: Delaware District—A. E. Schatzman, H. B. Conrad, D. H. Bailey, Prof. McK. Vance. Findlay District—A. J. Kestle, J. J. Hulse, C. C. Peale, J. F. Matteson. Hillsboro District—E. Burdsall, O. N. Sams, J. A. Eason, R. A. Haynes.

Terms to Expire 1922: Lima District—W. D. Cole, W. H. C. Goode, O. P. Hoffman, J. I. Motter. Springfield District—V. F. Brown, Prof. Carey Boggess, W. A. Wiant, H. S. Bradley. Toledo District—B. F. Reading, H. B. Williams, S. K. Mahon, G. W. Farley.

METHODIST HOME FOR THE AGED.

War conditions resulting in increased cost of everything, together with the financial drive made by the Centenary, increased the difficulties in the maintenance of this Home during the year. The expense of operation was approximately $47,000, which is more than $19,000 in excess of the amount expended the year previous to the beginning of the World War. The total income was $44,000, an increase of $3,000 over the previous year.

The trustees and officers of the Home rejoice in the success of the Centenary and, insofar as they were able and opportunities afforded, gave their services unstintingly thereto. They now feel that the thought of the church should turn toward such local institutions as orphanages, homes for the aged, and hospitals.

The Methodist Home for the Aged at College Hill has twenty years of history and has sheltered an average family of sixty old people during these years. At present the Home has ninety members. The average cost of keeping members for life in this institution by our own figures is in excess of twenty-five hundred dollars. The average amount paid in by the members has been less than eight hundred dollars.

The office has received this year more than four hundred applications, many of which were from old people facing life in county institutions, and we were powerless to help even in a small way because but fifteen per cent of the Methodist charges in the State are on our books as supporters.

The outlook for the future as touching endowments and wider service is reasonably good. The problem of interesting the individual churches in this institution as one worthy of their sympathy and support seems far from a satisfactory solution.

The total current assets of the institution on June 1 were $218,943. The productive endowment fund, included in the above, is $184,000. The total fixed assets of the institution are $313,475. The total assets are $532,418. The Home has in property and endowment more than $500,000 over all obligations. During the past year $11,050 were received on endowment, $10,000 of which came from Mrs. Obed J. Wilson, one of the founders and a very generous supporter. A bequest was also left to the Home in the will of Mrs. Martha C. Chapman, of Massillon.

The management wishes to inform the church anew that the Home was not organized for incurables or those suffering from imbecility. Many such applications are received.

At the annual meeting of the board in June, Dr. J. S. Secrest, of the North-East Ohio Conference, was re-elected president; Dr. C. E. Schenk, general manager; Dr. A. H. Norcross, of the Ohio Conference, endowment officer; Miss Bertha Tschopp, secretary; Mr. W. B. Anderson, of Portsmouth, treasurer.

We recommend as members of the board: C. E. Schenk, E. C. Harley, W. E. Stark, J. M. Mills, W. A. Wiant.

W. J. Hageman, Secretary.

LAKESIDE.

Our splendid institution at Lakeside, "On-Lake-Erie," has closed another successful season—by far the most profitable and satisfactory in its history. Many improvements were made during the year. The programs were of the highest order. The Bible Conference, which is more and more coming to occupy the foremost place in the summer schedule, reached high water mark and closed with three deeply spiritual messages by the world-famous Gipsy Smith.

The Epworth League Institute maintained the high standard of former years. The young people partially completed Epworth Lodge, which is to be a combination headquarters and dining hall. It greatly increased the efficiency of the institute.

Financially, Lakeside is in a very splendid condition. All current expenses have been paid, maturing bonds and accrued interest have been paid, and there remain several thousand dollars with which to improve the grounds and buildings. The present indebtedness is $5,500, secured by first-mortgage bonds. There are no outstanding accounts.

We confidently believe Lakeside has fully entered the period of new usefulness and prosperity prophesied by your committee last year, and for it would earnestly urge the coöperation of all.

We nominate as trustees to succeed themselves: Rev. Chas. Bennett, Rev. W. A. Robinson, W. H. H. Reeder, and H. C. Hopkins.

E. A. Strother, Chairman.

To the Lakeside Patronizing Conferences:

The Lakeside Campmeeting Association was incorporated more than forty years ago under a law of Ohio, which has been repealed for thirty years. This fact has been of great embarrassment to the association in recent years, because its charter powers are not as broad as its activities. For this reason it must respond very largely to the general laws of Ohio and the nation without having at the same time the privilege of a corporation not for profit. For instance, in the matter of special taxes and postage, unnecessary annual burdens of expense of several hundred dollars are now carried. This could be saved by reincorporation, which we now propose.

The undersigned have been appointed a committee to request of the several patronizing Conferences the adoption of a resolution, which we offer herewith. Its adoption will permit a reorganization, which in our judgment will enable the association's affairs to be more economically and efficiently administered, while at the same time preserving exactly as they now stand the reciprocal responsibilities of the association and the patronizing Conferences. We believe the proposed resolution expresses in its terms information as to what is to be the result of its adoption.

Be it resolved, By the West Ohio Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, the North-East Ohio Conference, and the Central German Conferences of said church concurring, that this Conference approve and authorize the Lakeside Campmeeting Association to convey, assign, transfer, and set over to a new corporation, to be hereafter organized and authorized by law, all the title, rights, privileges, and interests of whatever nature, whether in fee simple, in possession, in lease, in privilege, or however held, in and to the premises and appurtenances known as Lakeside, on Lake Erie, in Danbury Township, Ottawa County, Ohio, upon the following conditions only, namely:

(1) That said new corporation shall be composed of the following persons, namely: Reverend E. J. Webster, Reverend E. A. Strother, Judge John M. Killits, and S. B. LeSourd, of the West Ohio Conference; and Reverend R. F. Mayer, Reverend John M. Baxter, A. L. Hoover, and L. K. Galleher, of the North-East Ohio Conference; and Reverend Oscar Rogatzky and Robert Baur, of the Central German Conference, and the several persons to be elected at the fall of 1919 Conferences of said several Annual Conferences to take the places, respectively, of Reverend Charles Bennett, Reverend W. A. Robinson, W. H. H. Reeder, and H. C. Hopkins, of the West Ohio Conference; and Reverend John M. Blackburn, Reverend O. J. Moore, D. C. Powers (deceased), and Peter J. Slach, of the North-East Ohio Conference; and Reverend Daniel Matthaei and Otto H. Magly, of the Central German Conference, being trustees of the Lakeside Campmeeting Association, whose terms expire October, 1919.

(2) That said new association be incorporated not for profit, but for the encouragement and promotion of moral and religious education after the tenets of the Methodist Episcopal Church, and the furnishing of such opportunities for recreation as may be taken in conformity with the Word of God.

(3) That such proposed new association shall be related to the several Annual Conferences above named in the same way, with the same responsibilities thereto, as relations are now sustained between the said several Annual Conferences and the Lakeside Campmeeting Association.

(4) That said new association assume, take over, liquidate, and perform all obligations of whatever nature now borne by the Lakeside Campmeeting Association.

COMMITTEE ON LEAGUE OF NATIONS

While it is our conviction that the present draft of the League of Nations is not a perfect document or instrument and is not ideal as it stands; yet inasmuch as it is the first definite effort looking toward a world federation; and inasmuch as it is the product of the representatives of the great world allies, covering months of analysis and careful study; and as some initial movement world-wide is now a necessity in order to conserve what has been gained for the world; therefore, we urge and pray that the United States Senate may ratify and adopt the League of Nations, insisting that Japan shall fulfill her pledge to restore the Shantung Province to China within a specified time, and with such other reservations as may be necessary to conserve the rights of all or of each nation concerned in the League.

METHODIST CHILDREN'S HOME.

The year has been a strenuous one. War conditions, which stopped building in many lines, required that we secure increased accommodations to meet the intensified appeal of homeless children, so that on August 22, 1918, Bishop Anderson laid the cornerstone of our first new building, and dedicated this completed cottage June 11 of this year. The structure is fireproof, the walls being brick, the floors concrete. This building is located on the bank of a beautiful ravine on the Home farm, and will accommodate sixty children. For three years no babies have been received, but at present one of the original buildings is being fitted to serve as a nursery until the promised memorial cottage can be built. It will be a fortunate day when the most helpless return to our keeping. The needs of the Home are numerous, a few are pressing. The coal-oil lamps should be abolished and an electric lighting system, that would also operate our soft-water plant, be installed. The last mortgage of $7,000 on the farm should be lifted. The children coming to the Home because of the added accommodations will greatly increase our expenses and a larger income should be provided. The present buildings will soon be filled and new cottages will be needed; five hundred children have been turned away in the last twelve months. We recommend that the pulpits of the Conference be opened to the representatives of the Home; that J. McK. Brackney be made a member of the association for a term of five years; and that the Bishop appoint A. M. Crist as field agent for the coming year.

PUBLISHING INTERESTS.

We express great pleasure because our church is publishing the greatest religious magazine in America, the Methodist Review, and the best set of church papers. We rejoice that the Western Christian Advocate has made such a fine advance in circulation and has left a favorable balance of $2,300 for the year. We trust that it may be possible to increase the size of the paper to thirty-two pages in the near future. We humbly suggest a few points of possible improvement in the Review: Robert Browning is dead; and while yet speaking, should not be permitted to drown other voices as clear and pure as his own; rationalistic German theologians and erratic German metaphysicians have filled too large a space in the reviews. The attainment of an official position in the church, even when emphasized by translation, may establish a prima facie right to an extended eulogy in the Review; but since many ordinary men reach the official goal, and all of us will finally succeed in dying, the claim should be enforced by more evidence than is usually presented.

We commend our efficient Book Editor, Dr. Downey, on the fine selection of manuscripts to be published in book form, and we commend the publishers on the fine appearance and excellent mechanical make-up of all the books issued. We urge the observance of October 26 as Good Literature Day, with special emphasis on the Western Christian Advocate.

Our Sunday-school literature is of high grade, scholarly, spiritual, and varied to suit the constituency. We should use it. We congratulate the Book Concern on carrying through the business last year with a net surplus of $278,000; but we deplore the necessity laid upon the publishers to raise the prices of our publications in order to produce this surplus. The fundamental purpose of our publishing plants should be recognized, namely, to supply Methodism with the best Christian literature at lowest cost and hence in widest circulation.

RESOLUTIONS.

WHEREAS, We are just concluding one of the most remarkable sessions of an Annual Conference that most of us have ever attended; therefore be it Resolved, 1. That we record our unfeigned thanks to God for his grace and guidance during the past year, and especially in the signal victories of the Centenary.

2. That we call upon ourselves, our churches, and especially our leaders in charge, to exercise utmost prudence and prayer in spending the millions which our people have so hilariously given.

3. That we urge the Program Committee of next year and hereafter to markedly abbreviate the program of collateral work. The schedule for Conference week has reached such a state of congestion that it is self-vitiating.

4. That we express and record our sincere thanks to Dr. C. C. Peale for his thoughtfulness, vigilance, and abounding efficiency and courtesy as the entertaining pastor; we are grateful to the officials and members of the First Methodist Episcopal Church of Findlay for manifold favors, and to all other churches which have extended us courtesies; to our Statistician, A. E. Huntington, and to the Treasurer, Calvin W. Horn, and to V. F. Brown, Secretary, and their staffs, whose long-time and competent services demand more thoughtful appreciation and reward; to the Commercial National Bank; to the citizens, who have made us welcome; to the city press, which has with exactness reported our proceedings; to the Committee on Entertainment, which has been untiring in plans and patience to secure our comfort; to all who have edified us by sermon, address, or song, especially to George Wood Anderson for his sane and stirring evangelistic sermons; to our hosts and hostesses, who have made possible our shelter; to the good women of First Church for their skill in preparing and kindness in serving our meals. God bless and reward them, every one, for their sweet devotion to the cause.

5. That we tender our gratitude to Bishop Anderson for his courteous presidency and forceful addresses.

And WHEREAS, the program of our church calls for a great advance the coming year in soul winning and church membership,

6. That we approve this plan as the legitimate sequel to the Centenary, but that we determine to proceed sanely, not simply beating the drum with blind fervor for enlistments, but calling our people and our converts to an actual, honest, everyday following of the Christ.

And finally, that we now turn our faces toward our tasks with care, conscience, and courage, seeking to live the real Christ life and to preach more eloquently by what we are than by what we say.

P. ROSS PARRISH, Secretary.

RETIRED MINISTERS' ASSOCIATION.

At the first meeting of the association, held in Grace Evangelical Church, Findlay, on Tuesday evening, September 2, the death of seven retired ministers and eight ministers' widows was reported.

A paper relating to annuities for Conference Claimants was read by A. D. Maddox, and, after adoption, was ordered to be presented by the Secretary to the Annual Conference, asking for the apportionment of the full claim.

Appreciation of the courtesy and hospitality of the Conference members on the effective list in making the retired ministers their guests at the session was expressed, and the Secretary was directed to communicate this expression to the Conference.

At the annual meeting, held on September 3, the Committee on Nominations reported the following names, and they were elected: Honorary President, Bishop J. C. Hartzell; President, D. J. Starr; Vice-Presidents-at-Large, J. H. Bethards, G. H. Dart, I. N. Kalb. District Vice-Presidents—Cincinnati, C. W. Blodgett; Dayton, G. W. Dubois; Defiance, S. G. Colgan; Delaware, E. S. Dunham; Findlay, A. C. Barnes; Hillsboro, J. E. H. Sentman; Lima, William Deal; Springfield, Philip Trout; Toledo, N. B. C. Love. Secretary, Frank G. Mitchell; Assistant Secretary, J. W. Gaddis; Treasurer, A. D. Maddox.

The President and Secretary were requested to send letters of sympathy to Brothers N. B. C. Love and G. H. Dart, who were detained at home by illness.

Resolutions were adopted recognizing gratefully the existing provisions made in the Discipline for the support of Conference Claimants, and requesting the Annual Conference to carry out these provisions at once.

All retired ministers were urged to avail themselves of the fellowship of the association, and to aid in the prosecution of its work.

The ministerial and lay delegates to the General Conference were requested to secure the recognition of the Retired Ministers' Association in the next edition of the Discipline.

The establishment of a Winter Home in Florida for Retired Ministers was indorsed, and D. J. Starr, C. W. Blodgett, A. D. Maddox, and H. W. Bailey were appointed to represent this association in any practical measures to secure such a home.

The great emphasis being placed on evangelism at the Conference session was heartily welcomed, and district superintendents and pastors were assured of the fullest possible support.

Thanks were returned to President Starr, C. W. Blodgett, A. D. Maddox, and all others who had contributed to the effort to secure the favorable Conference action concerning the full claim of retired ministers and the widows of those deceased.

The former Secretary, W. B. Brown, was cordially thanked for his faithful service in office.

D. J. Starr, President.
Frank G. Mitchell, Secretary.

YOUNG PEOPLE'S WORK.

The young people of the West Ohio Conference have proven themselves loyal and patriotic to the church and State during the year 1918-19; the Epworth League work has been most successful in the past year. A building at Lakeside has been built and furnished by our young people. They have shown real leadership, and should be encouraged by the pastors and official boards of the entire church.

We recommend that wherever Boy Scouts are organized, the captain be a good Christian man. We urge the enlistment of our young people in the great task before us of winning 1,000,000 souls in this year.

W. J. Green, Secretary.

Memoirs.

REV. JAMES MONROE BAILEY.

The Rev. James Monroe Bailey was born on the 17th day of June, 1875. His father was a farmer in Clinton County, Ohio. Here he grew to manhood and received from the farm life and the pure air of God's out-of-doors that fine physique and healthy body with which he was blessed. After spending two years at school at the Ohio Wesleyan University, he was obliged to postpone his further attendance for a time on account of the death of his father, to assume the management of the farm. After two years of absence from the university he renewed his studies in that institution and graduated in 1901. Here he met Miss Jessie Murray, of Delaware, who also graduated at the same time from the class of 1901. They were married October 8 of that year. There were born to them two children—Marian, aged fifteen, and Wilson, aged eight years. At the session of the Cincinnati Conference held in the Walnut Hills Church, Cincinnati, September 3, 1902, he was received on trial and appointed to the Sinking Spring charge in the Hillsboro District. The following are the charges served: Sinking Spring, two years, and Winchester, four years. At the expiration of this pastorate he was granted permission to attend school by the Conference. He spent one year at Drew Theological Seminary pursuing special work. Returning at the end of the year to the pastorate, he served Leesburg charge four years, Columbia, Cincinnati, three years, and was serving the Delhi charge the third year when his work on earth was suddenly terminated by that dreadful disease, influenza, followed by pneumonia. His death came December 14, 1918, after a week's illness. He was found at his work when the summons came. It was on the Sabbath day, in the church, teaching his class in the Sunday school, that his fatal illness overtook him. For almost a week he fought his enemy but finally was compelled to surrender. During his sickness and delirium he spoke constantly of his work and Master.

Rev. James Monroe Bailey.

Bro. Bailey was a very popular man, greatly beloved by all his ministerial brethren, his congregations, and by all who knew him. At Delhi he was idolized by all denominations, both Protestant and Catholic. The priest sent expressions of sorrow and sympathy to the bereaved wife and children. Bro. Bailey is not dead. He has passed on.

"He is not in the low grave lying,
But is living and loving us close and near."

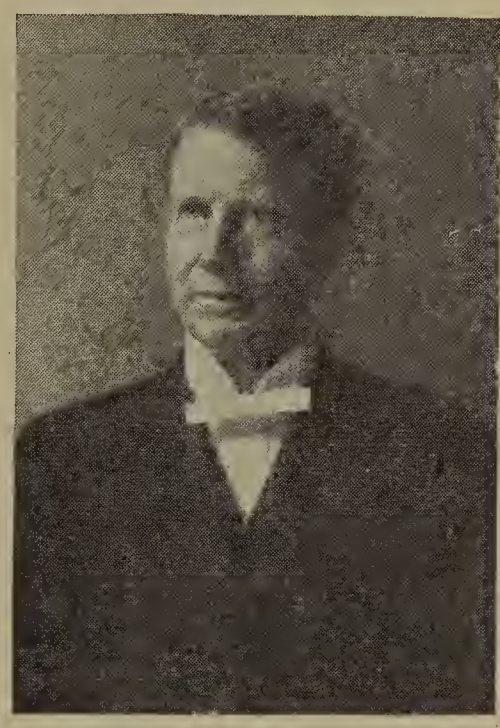
The road over which he has passed is not an unknown nor unfrequented one. The great ones of all times have gone that way. Patriarchs, prophets, priests, kings, Jesus, martyrs, and loved ones have gone on before.

For two years he was the popular secretary of the Cincinnati and Vicinity Preachers' Meeting. No one ever filled the office better. He did not pass "through the valley of the shadow of death," but stepped off Mount Hermon, up into the society of Moses and Elijah.

A. D. MADDOX.

BISHOP JAMES W. BASHFORD, D.D., LL.D.

Bishop James Whitford Bashford, who passed to his crown from Pasadena, California, on the morning of March 18, 1919, was just rounding out his threescore and ten years, having been born on a farm at Fayette, Wisconsin, May 27, 1849. Like most farmer boys of that section in those days, he had to make his own way, and he made it, graduating from the State University at Madison in 1873, where he continued for one year as a tutor in Greek. His call to the Christian ministry came, and feeling need of further preparation, he entered Boston School of Theology, and in due time graduated therefrom. His work at a struggling mission church, Harrison Square, by which it was brought up to a regular Conference appointment, won for him admission into the New England Conference in 1878, and appointment to Jamaica Plains, where he served three years, and thence to Auburndale for a like term. Then three years at Portland, Maine, and three at Delaware Avenue, Buffalo, New York—in every charge the same happy results following. Such a career could not be hid.



Bishop James W. Bashford, D.D., LL.D.

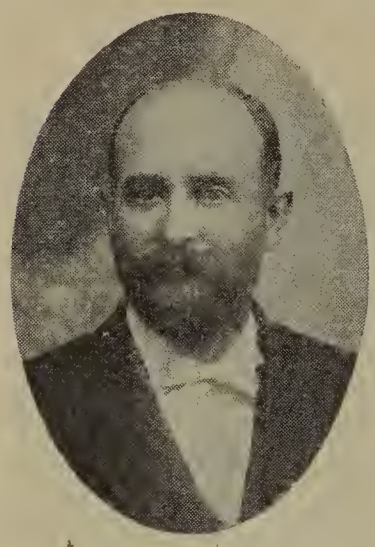
It is stated that during this last pastorate no less than eleven committees visited him regarding the presidency of some college, the last being from Ohio Wesleyan University in 1889. They were urgent. He was unyielding. At length he was convinced that he heard the only Voice that he was wont to obey, and went. He was transferred to the Cincinnati Conference. He brought to the college a new type of presidential personality. Among young people he was ever a shining light, and many a torch which glows in the dark places of the earth to-day was kindled at his altar fires. His presidency was a complete success, and the attention of the whole church was turned toward him, and at the General Conference of 1904 he was elected to the episcopacy, and the church never had a moment of regret for so doing. He would have been welcomed to any American city as a resident bishop, but he expressed a desire for China, and was so assigned, and for the past fifteen years has been to that great country and work what he had been to the university, only on a larger scale. As a young man he had desired to go to China as a missionary, but this had been denied, and now that he was there, he went over that vast territory as a man of God, giving his very life for the work.

Bishop Wilson wrote of him as a man "who walked with God. Whose horizon was broad, whose eye was clear, whose heart was strong." Rev. H. C. Hwang, of Kiukiang, China, characterized him as "China's St. James." Dr. J. F. Goucher characterized his life as a "Five-talent life." "He was a prepared man, an adjusted man, a providential man, a Christly man." His marriage to Miss Jane M. Field, of Madison, Wisconsin, occurred in 1878, and their wedded life was most ideal, she being in deepest sympathy with the good man's plans and work at all times. Appropriate funeral services were held at Pasadena, at which fitting tributes were paid. Further services were held at Delaware, Ohio, in June, including an address by Bishop McDowell, after which all that was mortal of this good man was laid to rest to await the resurrection day.

SECRETARY.

REV. HIRAM CROWL BURGER.

Rev. Hiram Crowl Burger, son of Samuel and Lavina Burger, was born near New Lisbon, Ohio, January 30, 1865; died at Prairie Depot, Ohio, September 12, 1918, aged 53 years, 7 months, and 12 days. His early education was received in the country schools, and his college education at Mount Union, from which institution he received his A. B. He received his special preparation for the Christian ministry at the Boston University School of Theology, from which institution he received the S. T. B. degree. For a number of years Rev. Burger was instructor in Greek and Chemistry in the Missouri Wesleyan Institute.



Rev. Hiram C. Burger.

In 1896 he entered the itinerate ministry, uniting with the Central Ohio Conference, and served the following charges: Broadway Circuit, Wesley (Marion), New Dover, Rossburg, Bradford, Kenton Circuit, Ansonia, Hardin, Port Jefferson, Pemberville, McClure, Liberty Center, Sylvania, Cygnet, Prairie Depot.

Rev. Burger was born of Christian parents and grew to young manhood in the atmosphere of a Christian home. In early life he surrendered his life to his heavenly Master and came to know the joy of communion and fellowship with God. He was a thorough Methodist in belief, experience, and practice; a true minister of the gospel of the Son of God, and fearlessly and clearly preached the gospel of salvation from sin.

On October 31, 1900, he was united in marriage with Miss Nellie A. Burns, of Rossburg, Ohio. To this union were born three children: Kathleen, who died in infancy; Merrill, aged 15 years, and Dorothy, aged 11.

Rev. Burger had returned from Conference only a few days before his death. He had taken an unusual interest in the program of the Conference, and cheerfully returned to Prairie Depot for another year, entering enthusiastically upon his work. He had complained of some distress about the heart during the evening, but retired at the usual time. About eleven o'clock the wife was aroused by some unusual sounds, and found him unconscious, and in a few minutes he passed peacefully away. The funeral services were held on Sunday afternoon from the Methodist Episcopal church of Prairie Depot, in charge of the District Superintendent, Dr. E. E. McCammon, assisted by several brother ministers. His body was laid to rest in the beautiful Prairie Depot cemetery, where it will rest until the resurrection morn.

E. E. McCammon.

REV. J. J. FINLAY

The Rev. Joseph J. Finlay, of Kenton, Ohio, died January 9. 1919. He was born in Ireland, March 30, 1836. He came to this country when he was twenty years old. He enlisted in the army in 1861 and served four years. He was with General Sherman on his famous march to the sea. He came home from the war and entered the Ohio Wesleyan University, and graduated in 1868. He was married the same year and joined the old Central Ohio Conference. He served the church for thirteen years and retired because of ill-health. The circuits he traveled were large.

The Rev. Finlay was more than an ordinary man in his search for knowledge. During the years he lived on the farm he kept up with the advanced thought and made a special study of philosophy and science of religion. Few men could defend the faith of the fathers or the polity of the Methodist Church as he could. He was kind and gentle in his nature, a loving husband and father. He loved his pastors and was very loyal to them. One more of the old itinerants has laid down his "saddle-bags" and gone to his reward. He leaves his aged wife, two sons, and two daughters. His funeral was held in his home on January 11, in charge of the District Superintendent, Wm. McK. Brackney, assisted by the pastor, D. H. Bailey.

M. C. Howey.

REV. J. W. GIBSON.

The Rev. J. W. Gibson, D.D., was born in Cincinnati, Ohio, April 28, 1868, and died in Toledo, Ohio, February 7, 1919. He was of Scotch parentage and manifested the resultant characteristics as a diligent and successful student. He was educated in the University of Toronto and in Knox School of Theology in Toronto, Canada. He took up the study of law and was admitted to practice in the United States District and Circuit Courts for the District of Colorado in June, 1896; admitted to the bar in the State of Illinois in May, 1897; and also admitted to practice in the Circuit Court of the United States for the Northern District of Illinois in October, 1897. He graduated from the National College of Law, Chicago, and received the degree of LL.D. December 29, 1897. He also studied medicine, graduating from the College of Homeopathy in Chicago, April, 1894, and from the Independent College of Medicine in that city June, 1897.

Rev. J. W. Gibson.

But coincident with his successful study of law and medicine he prepared himself for the work of the ministry and after due examination was admitted to the Presbytery of Denver on April 23, 1895. On September 10, 1900, he was admitted on his credentials from the Presbyterian Church to full membership in the Central Ohio Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church. He remained in that Conference till September, 1913, when the Central Ohio and the Cincinnati Conferences were united, becoming the West Ohio Conference. January 1, 1902, he was married to Miss Minnie Monroe, Bishop John M. Walden performing the ceremony in Cincinnati. He continued in active work in the West Ohio Conference until September, 1918, when illness compelled him to take the retired relation. He was a zealous student, an ardent Christian, and an indefatigable pastor. Most of his very useful work in the pastorate was done within the bounds of the Findlay District. He closed his active ministry by a three years' pastorate at Carey, where he sincerely loved the church and the people and where he was highly respected and greatly beloved in return. During his illness he had the tender care of his devoted wife, who had been a loving, earnest, and faithful helpmeet and fellow student. Surviving him are his wife; one brother, Rev. Joseph W. Gibson, of the Presbyterian Church, now resident in Toledo, Ohio; and one sister, Mrs. McKenzie, of Oakland, California.

After fitting funeral services in the church under the direction of the pastor, Rev. J. M. Shimer; an appropriate address by his District Superintendent, Dr. C. M. Van Pelt; and the burial service of the Scottish Rite Masons, his remains were laid to rest by his ministerial brethren in the beautiful Spring Grove Cemetery near the city where he last served and where the people so lovingly and loyally served him.

J. M. Shimer.

REV. ULYSSES GRANT HUMPHREY.

Ulysses Grant Humphrey was born near Pomeroy, Ohio, August 3, 1865. Five facts marked and magnified his life and character:

1. He was a conscientious Christian. He was educated in a private school at Tupper's Plains, Ohio, and spent five happy and successful years as a teacher. While teaching, he felt increasingly the insistent call to the ministry. Ever sensitive and responsive to the influences of the Spirit, he responded to that call, entering the old Cincinnati Conference in September, 1891, giving twelve years to the regular pastorate, and serving successively and successfully Pleasant Ridge, Winchester, New Burlington, Jamestown, and Middletown. Wherever he served his consecrated Christian life and character were acknowledged and honored.

Rev. Ulysses Grant Humphrey.

2. He was an earnest evangelist. His ministry was characterized by real revivals. He sought not ephemeral emotions but deep decisions to forsake sin and to follow the Christ. Both God and men respected his zeal, recognized his wisdom, and honored his ministry. Hundreds are now in the kingdom of God on earth, and hundreds in the kingdom of God beyond the earth, because he powerfully and pleadingly proclaimed to men the saving evangel of the King.

3. He was a real reformer. He not only advocated reforms by his words but achieved them by his works. In 1903 he was called to work in the Anti-Saloon League, giving eleven years of his life to brave battle against the lawless liquor traffic. He served with splendid success as Superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League in the States of Indiana and Wisconsin, and as Superintendent of the Pittsburgh District of the Pennsylvania Anti-Saloon League. To-day, doubtless, he looks down from the courts of high heaven with unspeakable joy upon a dry United States and upon the triumphant temperance forces now forming for the final conquest of the world.

4. He was a splendid servant. His deepest desire was to serve his fellows. Like his Master, he was here "not to be ministered unto but to minister." He was among men as "one who serves." He "went about doing good." When the West Ohio Conference called him to act as Secretary of the Conference Claimants Endowment Fund, he recognized and responded to the call as a summons to service. He accepted it as an opportunity to serve the men who had given their years of mature strength to the work of the church for meager salaries, and whose years of age and weakness were being spent in pitiful poverty. The task was tremendously difficult. Many charges were unsympathetic and irresponsive. It broke his health and his heart. In September, 1918, the Conference discontinued the active campaign for the Conference Claimants Endowment Fund, and he returned to the pastorate, being appointed again to Pleasant Ridge. There he served till the last day of October, 1918, when disease confined him to the bed from which death carried him to heaven on January 8, 1919.

5. He was a happy husband and fond father. On December 18, 1887, he was united in marriage to Miss Minnie C. Ballard. Their life together was ideal in mutual love and devotion. To them were born two daughters, Georgia and Helen. His love for them was most tender, his pride in their fine womanhood most touching. He loved the church, he honored the State, but his deepest joy was found in his home.

But now he is gone into the heavenly home. His beloved wife, his dear daughters, his revered mother, his honored brother after the flesh, his esteemed brothers in the Conference, and a host of freinds will sadly miss him here but gladly hope to find hereafter in the Great Unseen. There he lives in the deathless spirit. Here he lives in deathless influence.

"Were a star quenched on high,
For ages would its light,
Still traveling downward from the sky,
Shine on our mortal sight.

"So, when a good man dies,
For years beyond our ken
The light he leaves behind him lies
Upon the paths of men."

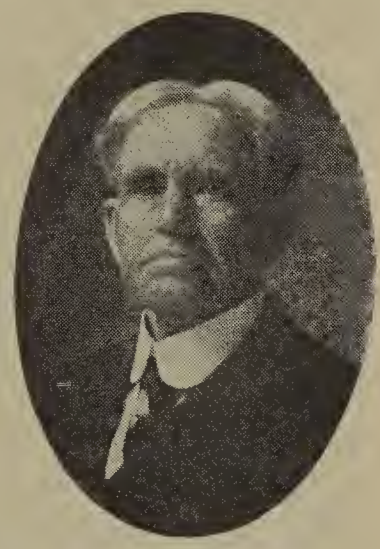
He was my friend and fellow-worker. In that fact I am honored. No more in the church militant shall I serve with him, but in the Church triumphant I expect to greet him.

"Thank God, who gives his children
An eternal youth, which knows advance
But never knows decay!
All hail, eternal youth!
Eternal Life, that knows not youth or age,
But goes on through an everlasting Now."

C. M. Van Pelt.

REV. JACOB RAPER HUNTER.

Jacob Raper Hunter was born at Mt. Moriah, near North Lewisburg, Ohio, April 15, 1842, and died at Lebanon, Ohio, February 9, 1919, in his seventy-seventh year. When a small boy he moved with his parents to North Lewisburg, where he remained until the beginning of the Civil War. In 1861 he enlisted as a private in a company commanded by John D. Inskip, 17th O. V. I., under Durbin Ward, and was discharged at Atlanta, Georgia, October, 1864. While in the service he contracted inflammatory rheumatism, with little hope of recovery. However, God had other plans for him, for only a few months before, with the confusion of war about him, he gave his heart to God and promised him a life service. After his discharge he taught district school, then entered the mercantile business in Xenia; at the same time busied himself in preparation for the ministry. He was licensed to exhort by Rev. J. W. Fowble at Trinity, Xenia, January, 1868. June 26, 1869, he was licensed as a local preacher by the Venice charge, his license signed by Rev. J. F. Chalfant and Valorous Brown, Secretary. He was received into the Cincinnati Conference, and during his ministry served the following charges: Venice, St. Paris, Clarksville, Amelia, New Vienna, Venice (second term), Sinking Spring, New Moorefield, East Liberty, New Paris, Tippecanoe City, Mutual, and Owensville. In 1897, because of impaired health, he accepted the Superannuated relation and located in Lebanon, where he resided until his death. Retirement did not mean for him cessation of toil, but he continued to give to the church the best of his time and talents, and for years was "pastor emeritus" of Lebanon. For nine years he served as chaplain of the infirmary, being deeply interested in this work.



Rev. J. Raper Hunter.

He was a great lover of books, but the book he lived best was the Bible, studying intently with full comments the original and accepted versions. He was a great sufferer during his last illness, but manifested great patience. While on the Clarksville charge, in 1871, he was united in marriage to Miss Lucinda Harris, and for all the years of his ministry they worked and toiled together and were the instruments of winning many souls to Christ and his church. There remains to mourn their loss his widow, his only daughter Miss Blanche, one brother, and a large circle of relatives and friends. His work is done. He needs no eulogy. His life is sufficient. Like the Master he loved, he went about doing good, and many were made better and the world brighter because he lived. He was a true soldier of the cross. Now taps have been sounded, and like a tired warrior he lies down to rest, and when reveille sounds again it will be in a land where there are no more battles to fight but all is joy and peace.

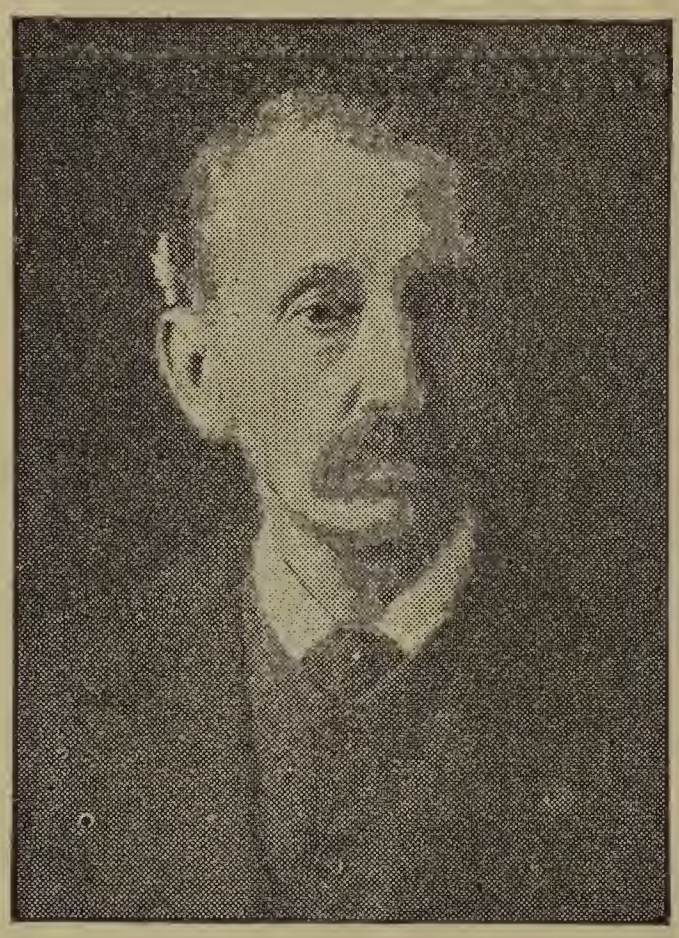
Following impressive services at the church, conducted by his pastor, assisted by a number of the brethren of the Conference, his remains were laid to rest in the beautiful cemetery at Waynesville, Ohio.

A Loved One.

REV. WILLIAM W. LANCE

October 16 Rev. Dr. William W. Lance passed away at his home in Celina, Ohio. He had just retired, at the last session of the West Ohio Conference, from a most successful pastorate of six years at this place. Immediately after Conference he began rapidly to decline in health. The funeral services were conducted October 18, Rev. E. L. Motter, the pastor, having charge. Rev. M. C. Howey led in prayer; the pastor read the Scriptures; James F. Olive, District Superintendent of Defiance District, preached the sermon; Rev. Geo. W. Horn, pastor of the Presbyterian Church, paid tribute, both personal and for the community, after which burial was made in Fostoria. The following appreciation was read by Rev. H. J. Jewett: "How beautiful to come to the end of the journey and find oneself surrounded by friends, and to look back over the way and see that life has been a walk with God and a ministry to men! Such truly was the life and walk of the Rev. Dr. William W. Lance.



Rev. William W. Lance.

"A ministry of nearly half a century in Northwestern Ohio made him the familiar friend and well-known Christian minister of dignity and strength in many communities. In a very peculiar and particular manner he belonged to the people of the former Central Ohio Conference territory. The name of William W. Lance must ever be associated with the charges he served as pastor; (Prospect, Marseilles, Carey, Dunkirk, Bryan, Van Wert, Defiance, Sidney, Broadway Toledo, Fostoria, Bowling Green, William Street Delaware, Wauseon, Defiance, and Celina) and with Findlay District as its head. As a preacher Dr. Lance was at once scholarly and practical. He clearly thought out his own message and delivered it with his conviction as the messenger of God. He had a very profound appreciation of the hymns of the church, yet he did not eschew history, literature, art, and science as servants to do his bidding. In the pulpit he was pre-eminently a seed-sower and an inspirer of Christian thought.

"As a pastor he was wise, sympathetic, and sincere. As a writer for the church press he manifested most acceptable gifts. He delighted to think and write on the deep and precious problems of immortality. The ministry of this good man was strengthened by the ties of fraternity, ties of the love of manhood quite as much as for the teaching of Masonry, for he was an active Mason. As a veteran of the Civil War, having enlisted as a drummer boy, his heart knew that patriotism which ever kindles a glow in the soul to lighten and enhearten his fellow-countrymen in dark and sore days like these, days which brought forth from his pulpit the ruling power of the true patriot. But that which made him the real messenger of God to men was the 'flame of sacred love' in his heart for Christ, a fire holy and pure, kindled by the Spirit divine. To serve the church of Christ was his consuming passion, and to it his unmeasured devotion was given. His voice is silent. He has heard the 'Well done, good and faithful servant; enter thou into the joy of thy Lord.'"

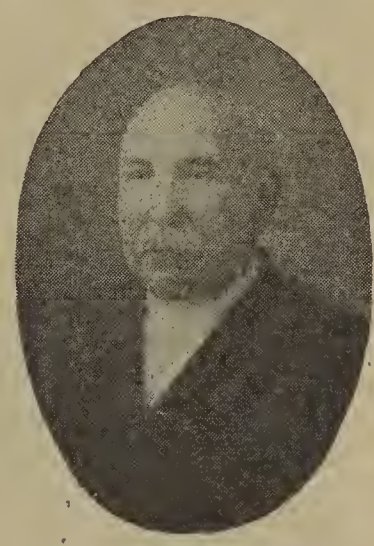
E. L. MOTTER.

REV. JOHN H. LEASE.

John H. Lease was born July 5, 1832, in Perry County, Pennsylvania, on a farm near Newport. He was the son of John and Christina Lease, both not only religious and members of the church, but pious, God-fearing people from whose family altar the incense of prayer arose heavenward every morning and evening, in harvest time as well as in winter, and it was around that family altar that the deceased learned to pray by taking his turn in family worship when but a boy. He was converted when but a boy of eleven years of age, at a preaching service held in a private home, and joined the church and all his life has shown himself a worthy, acceptable, and useful member. Early in life he felt the call to the ministry and sought every opportunity to obtain a good education, and after passing through the common public school, started to the Bloomfield Academy in 1850, spending two summers there and teaching during the winter. In 1852 he entered the preparatory or grammar school of Dickinson College, Carlisle, Pennsylvania, and at the end of two years entered the freshman class, graduating in the full course in 1858.



Rev. John H. Lease.

The same year he was licensed to preach. In August, 1858, he began teaching in Union Seminary, Union County, Pennsylvania, and taught there for five years, the last being elected to serve as principal. The Civil War, together with a heavy debt, closed the seminary.

In 1862, January 12, he was united in marriage to Miss Catharine A. Bair, of Madisonburg, Pennsylvania. To them four children were born: Emery G., Minnie S., and the twin boys, Herman and Harry. In 1864 he was elected Professor of English Literature in Pennsylvania State Agricultural College, and in 1865 was elected Professor of Ancient Languages in the Northwestern College of Plainfield, Illinois, now at Napier, where he labored for four years. During all the years he was engaged in teaching it was his delight to preach on the Sabbath and to work among the students during protracted meetings, and it greatly rejoiced his heart to see them happily converted, and quite a number of them enter the ministry.

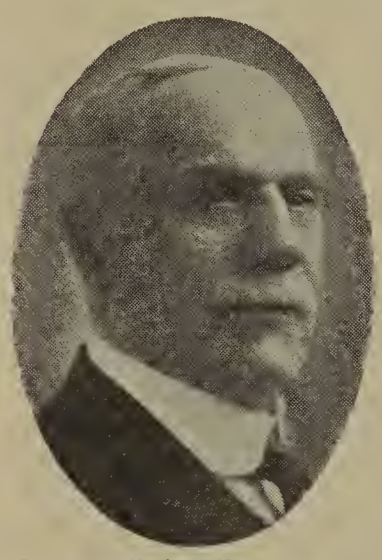
He removed to Pleasant Hill, Missouri, and in 1872 joined the St. Louis Conference at the session held in Kansas City, and was appointed to Holden, serving the full term of two years. He was then assigned to Knob Noster, and after one year and seven months, during which time he succeeded in completing and dedicating the church, and liquidating a heavy mortgage debt, was transferred to the Cincinnati Conference and appointed to Batavia, serving the full term of three years. His subsequent pastorates were Asbury (Cincinnati), three years; Wilmington, three years—during this pastorate he was honored with the Doctorate by the Baptist College of Lewisburg, Pennsylvania; 1884-86, Madisonville, during which the greatest revival of his ministry occurred, resulting in some three hundred conversions, and on one Sabbath morning eighty-seven were received into full membership; 1887-89, York Street (Cincinnati); 1890-95, Bond Hill and Pleasant Ridge;

1896-99, Seven Mile; 1900-04, Bethany; 1905-08, New Vienna; 1908, Newtown, a charge of four appointments, necessitating much travel and hard work; and after three years, being now in his eightieth year, asked and secured the Superannuated relation in 1911, and moved to Madisonville to spend the evening of life among friends.

In June, 1914, upon invitation, he was the guest of the State College, Pennsylvania, all expenses provided by the school, at which time he was honored by receiving the degree of Master of Science. It was a red-letter occasion, and amongst the many delights thereof was that of meeting twelve persons of the class of 1864, former pupils. To few men is given such a long, constant, and honorable record. He lived in the affections of those who knew and honored him. J. H. L.

REV. JOHN PEARSON.

Dr. John Pearson was born in Ireland, December 25, 1842, and died in Cincinnati, October 16, 1918. He began his ministry in the Cincinnati Conference, which he joined in September, 1865. His first appointment was in connection with the Ladies' Home Mission work in Cincinnati, serving successfully under their auspices Mears Chapel, 1865-67; Carr Street and Clark Street, 1868-69; Union, 1870. In 1871 he was appointed pastor of New Carlisle, and his successive appointments were as follows: Waynesville; New Paris; Port Union; Mt. Auburn, Cincinnati; First Church, Urbana; Presiding Elder, Hillsboro District; Central Church, Springfield; Wesley, Cincinnati; Presiding Elder, Cincinnati District; Asbury, Cincinnati; St. Paul, Dayton; Wilmington; Field Agent, American Bible Society, 1899-1905; Madisonville, Cincinnati; McKendree; and in 1910 took a Supernumerary relationship. In 1912 he was placed upon the Retired list.



Rev. John Pearson.

From 1865 to the end of his life witnessed a service to which it is given but few men to offer to the kingdom of God. The talents of Dr. Pearson were many and diversified. This enabled him in a comparatively humble sphere of activities to make greater contribution to the life of the church than the average man holding like appointments. The unusual executive talent possessed by him enabled him to conserve the forces and resources of the churches over which he was pastor, but were especially manifest in his superintendency of the Hillsboro and Cincinnati Districts and in his service on the Board of Managers of the Freedmen's Aid Society and the Board of Trustees of the Methodist Episcopal Church. Dr. Pearson was a member of the latter board and of the Executive Committee for an exceptionally long period, and for many years was the efficient secretary. He retained membership in this board until his death, though he relinquished the secretaryship in January, 1917.

The forces of life in Dr. Pearson began to wane about the year 1912, but no man ever made more of diminishing power than did he. The slow paralysis of physical power apparently left his mind clear until very near the end and he once said to the writer, who met him in the Quarterly Conference at Walnut Hills, that he was very glad that his death was beginning in his feet rather than in his head. His affliction was a severe one but he remained singularly sweet and patient through it all. Methodism should have no lack of appreciation for real manhood and never be wanting in gratitude for the life of a true servant of God. Neither will the church come to the democracy of Jesus Christ until it places character above position or power and realizes that the highest eminence to be attained in this world is Christ-likeness. Judged by such a standard, Dr. Pearson would be by no means the least among the products of the old Cincinnati Conference. The consolation left to his family and friends is the memory of an upright man whose steps were ordered of the Lord. C. E. SCHENK.

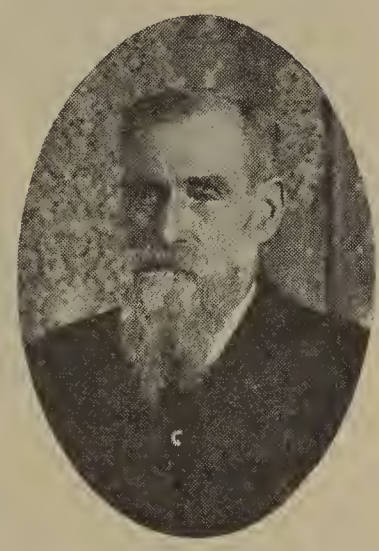
REV. JOHN M. SHULTZ.

John Meek Shultz, a retired member of the West Ohio Conference, was born in Fountain County, Indiana, February 18, 1830, and passed to his reward November 6, 1918, arriving at the ripe age of eighty-eight years. He was the son of Jehu J. and Rhoda Shultz, being the third child in a family of seven—five boys and two girls—all of whom have preceded him to the world beyond. Four of the five boys became ministers of the gospel, he being the first to enter the work. Through his influence and instruction they became useful servants in the kingdom. Soon after his birth he with his parents moved to Adams County, Ohio, where he grew to manhood. Here in early youth he was converted and joined the Methodist Episcopal Church, and at the age of sixteen was appointed class leader, and at eighteen received his local preacher's license. A good voice and his gift in song were splendid adjuncts to his ministry, especially in revival meetings. Previous to his entering upon the work of the ministry definitely, he taught a few terms of school and also learned the carpenter trade, which became very useful in after years in building and repairing churches and parsonages.



Rev. John M. Shultz.

In 1850 he was united in marriage with Miss Eliza Sanders, who shared with him in all his labors of love for almost sixty-eight years, she having been called to a peaceful and happy rest about one year ago. Since then life and home have been very lonely for him. In 1851 he taught school and worked some at the carpenter trade in Pulaski, Indiana; then he moved to Wisconsin, near Milwaukee, where he taught school and assisted in revival work. It was here where the presiding elder called him to supply Summit Circuit until the fall of 1853, when he was received into the Wisconsin Conference, reappointed to the same circuit, serving till the fall of 1854, when he transferred to the Ohio Conference, where he traveled some of the largest circuits in Lawrence, Pike, Scioto, and Adams Counties, over the hills, crossing streams on horseback, having glorious success, taking hundreds into the church, many of whom became successful ministers of the gospel. In 1873 he was transferred to the old Central Ohio Conference, filling the appointments of Finley Chapel, Raymond, St. Marys, La Fayette, Stryker, Mt. Blanchard, South Kenton, East Kenton, Belle Center, and Ansonia. In the fall of 1890 he took the Superannuated relation, moving to his home south of Mt. Victory, Ohio.

To Rev. Shultz and wife were born eleven children: three died in early childhood; the oldest son, the Rev. James W., was a member of the same Conference, the Central Ohio, who passed away while ministering to his people on the Gilboa Circuit in 1891, at the age of thirty-six; five daughters and two sons, also fourteen grandchildren and sixteen great-grandchildren are left to mourn his departure.

The Rev. Kelley L. Smith, of Mt. Victory, had charge of the service, assisted by the Revs. Wm. McK. Brackney and J. W. Donnau. Sorrow had no place in the service, rather gratitude that the head of this highly respected family had been so used of God. The service was held at the home, and he was laid to rest in Hale Cemetery. REV. KELLEY L. SMITH.

REV. KELLY LORENZO SMITH.

Rev. Kelly Lorenzo Smith was born near Findlay, Ohio, January 14, 1865, and passed away at the parsonage at Mt. Victory, Ohio, on June 2, 1919, aged 54 years, 4 months, and 18 days. Following his academic training at Findlay College he taught school for twelve successive years, finally resigning from the superintendency of the schools at Arlington, Ohio, to enter the ministry.

Rev. Kelly Lorenzo Smith.

In 1891 he married Miss Emma Fahl, of Mt. Blanchard, Ohio, living on a farm near by and teaching school through the winter months. Because of his widespread influence in the community, a little group of Christian people prayed all night for his conversion and brought him to sudden conviction. After a week of prayer, and "wrestling" most of a night, he "felt his heart strangely warmed," and at once heard the call to the ministry. Converted at the age of thirty, unfamiliar with religious matters, he could not find it possible to answer the call until the way was opened for him in 1900 to go to Garrett Biblical Institute. By studying through the vacation months as well as during the school year, he was able to graduate with the class of 1903. He entered the Central Ohio Conference that fall and has served the following pastorates: Allentown, St. John, Kalida, Epworth (Kenton), Prospect, and Mt. Victory, where he was completing his second year when life's labor was ended.

Brother Smith is survived by his wife and three children, all of whom proved valuable assistants in his ministry. The children are Mrs. Ralph D. Shields, of Kenton; Cecil D. Smith, a chaplain in France at the time of his father's death and a member of this Conference, and Mrs. Cletus V. Wolfe, of Urbana. Other living relatives are his father, Daniel Smith, of Findlay, Ohio; a stepmother; one full sister, Mrs. Jennie Shepard, of McClure, Ohio; two half-brothers, Harry and Logan; and four half-sisters: Mrs. Bertha Huston, Findlay; Mrs. Nellie Opp, Mt. Blanchard; Mrs. Park Dukes, in Oklahoma, and Mrs. Maude Johnson, of Cleveland.

Brother Smith was a tireless worker. He took most seriously his pledge to spend and be spent in the ministry. Fired by his own experiences, he preached the evangel with unusual success. His revivals were blessed with conversions by the hundreds. For ten years he was president of the Mt. Lookout Holiness Association, spending his vacations in that work. Wherever he went churches were built up on all lines, debts wiped out, and forces rallied for every worthy campaign. Sunday-school work and prohibition campaigns found him exerting a county-wide influence. The Centenary Movement called forth his enthusiasm to the overtaxing of his already limited strength, and he was called ahead of time to participate in that adoration of "The King" so beautifully portrayed in "The Wayfarer" pageant of the kingdom.

CECIL D. SMITH.

REV. WILLIAM MONTGOMERY WEST

William Montgomery West, third son of Richard Henry and Angelina Marshall West, was born near Baltimore, Maryland, August 17, 1842, and died at his home in Madisonville, Cincinnati, Ohio, October 27, 1918, aged seventy-six years, two months, and twenty days. He lived the typical rural life of those days, farming, teaching country school, and holding the position for several years as principal of the academy at Stewartstown, Maryland, until in 1875 he was ordained elder in the Methodist Episcopal Church by Bishop Jesse T. Peck at the Baltimore Annual Conference, in session at Winchester, Virginia, having been received upon trial in the Conference several years previous to this. The year preceding his ordination he was married at Perkins Chapel, Maryland, to Miss Emily Mary Naylor, daughter of Rev. Stephen W. and Lucretia Naylor, of Patuxent, Anne Arundel County, Maryland. To this union were born three sons and one daughter—Elbert Emory, William Naylor, Lawrence Vernon, and Florence Virginia—all of whom with their mother survive.

William Montgomery West.

The charges served in the Baltimore Conference were Buckeystown, Pleasant Grove, Elk Ridge, and Forestville. In 1876 he was transferred to the West Virginia Conference, being first stationed at historic old Wesley Chapel, Wheeling, then Marshall, Evansville, Pruntytown, Buckhannon, and St. George. After serving the church for ten years in West Virginia, he was, in 1885, transferred to the Cincinnati Conference, now the West Ohio, and continued in the active service until 1898; during these years the following charges shared in his services: Fair Haven and Sugar Valley, Lewisburg, West Union, Feesburg, Troy Circuit, Brandt, New Paris, and Ft. Jefferson, Venice and Branch Hill.

In the fall of 1898 he accepted the Superannuated relation, and for a period of years following did supply work at Olive Hill and Paintersville, Kentucky, and mission work in the Red Jacket mining region of West Virginia, where once again the saddle-bags, now long hanging in the attic, became the constant companion and unique reminder of the early days of his itinerancy. After many weeks of illness he fell on sleep. After appropriate services, held at his late home under the direction of the District Superintendent, Dr. W. H. Wehrly, assisted by a number of his ministerial brethren, the wasted form was laid to rest in the Madisonville cemetery to await the resurrection of the just.

A. B. Austin.

MRS. MAMIE B. CHILES.

Mamie B. Chiles, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Keith, was born August 22, 1885; departed this life April 29, 1919, at the City Hospital, Lima, Ohio, at the age of 33 years, 8 months, and 7 days.

On November 29, 1902, she was united in holy wedlock with C. D. Chiles, of near Alger, Ohio, and to this union were born three children, two sons and one daughter—Paul D., John C., and I. Isabella—who together with the husband survive.

Mrs. Chiles early in life gave her heart to the Lord and became an earnest Christian. When later in life she again heard the call of the Christ saying to her, "The heathen are in darkness; go ye and point them to the Christ," but a lack of encouragement kept her from obeying this time, but not from striving for their salvation, for the delight of her soul was to do missionary work. Her plan being to organize societies at all three points on the work for both women and children.

Mrs. Chiles was a lover of young life and therefore drew the children unto her through her kindness, giving them the privileges of her home, holding that the boys and girls of the church are of more worth than carpets and rugs. As wife and mother she was devoted to her family, the burden of her heart being that God might use her children for the extension of his kingdom.

She was a great sufferer, having spent thirteen weeks in the institution in which death came. Although a great sufferer, she bore it patiently, always greeting her friends with a smile. In her last sickness her suffering was most intense. Tuesday morning as the clock pointed to the hour of 8.15 Christ declared her victor and gave to her the crown won through faithful service.

She leaves to tread life's lonely pathway her husband, two sons, and one daughter, besides father, mother, two brothers, and three sisters, who will feel their loss most keenly.

Services were held at Middle Point, conducted by the Rev. S. R. Dunham, of First Church, Van Wert, also at First Church, Ada, by the District Superintendent, J. F. Olive, assisted by Dr. A. E. Smith and Rev. W. N. Shank, after which she was laid to rest in Woodlawn Cemetery, Ada, Ohio.

J. F. OLIVE.

MRS. R. K. DEEM.

Mary Jane, daughter of Benjamin and Permelia Knowlton Tufts, was born February 11, 1839, at Maineville, Ohio, where she received a liberal education, completing the course in the Maineville Academy. Being the eldest daughter of a large family, it naturally devolved upon her to bear a large share of the household duties, all of which she willingly accepted. Her parents were devout Christians, their first concern being to please God and bring their children to a knowledge of personal salvation, and the family altar was most prominent in that home. Very early in life she sought and found the Saviour, and united with the Methodist Church, and at once entered into the active Christian service and experiences, not from a sense of duty, but joy. For some time before marriage she taught school, and proved herself a ready writer, both of prose and poetry.

March 5, 1872, she was united in marriage with the Rev. Reuben K. Deem, a successful pastor in the Cincinnati Conference, and for more than thirty-three years shared with him the joys and hardships of the itinerancy, and in every field proved herself most efficient and helpful, throwing her whole life into every department of the work. To this union three children were born, who still survive: Alfred Cookman, Frank Finley, and Anna. Mrs. Mary Goodrich Deem is her step-daughter. Her great-grandfather was the Rev. Frances Tufts, her grandfather was the Rev. Benjamin Tufts, and her youngest brother is the Rev. L. G. Tufts. Her great-grandfather Tufts also her great-grandfather Knowlton, were soldiers of the American Revolution. Her husband and two brothers were soldiers in the Civil War.

She departed this life from the home of her son in Franklin, Ohio, January 23, 1919, having almost attained the ripe age of eighty years. She lived a good life, she died a triumphant death, and left a good testimony to the saving and keeping power of the Lord Jesus Christ. Heaven is richer, as also earth, for her life and services to her Master. FRANK M. STANTON.

MRS. C. N. FISHER

Mrs. Amy Canter Fisher, wife of the Rev. C. N. Fisher, pastor at Manchester, Hillsboro District, died Monday morning, April 14, 1919, at the age of thirty-six years and six months. She was seemingly in excellent health when an acute attack of appendicitis compelled an operation. Complications set in, making a second operation necessary, which she was not able to undergo. She was born on a farm near Bethel, Clermont County, Ohio, and passed her life in its peaceful shelter through childhood and youth.

On February 12, 1902, she married Chas. N. Fisher. The union was a happy one. Two children came to bless their home: Glenna and Wendel. She was essentially a home-maker, and her constant thought and effort was for its happiness. When Brother Fisher felt called to the work of the ministry she loyally stood by him and accepted without a murmur the limitations of the parsonage life. Naturally timid in disposition, she dreaded the more public phases of work that are sometimes considered very essential in a pastor's wife. But at every place they served she left a host of firm friends and her influence was always on the right side. She was a constant help to her husband. She was but fourteen years of age when she united with the church, and she has always lived a faithful and consistent life. Her friends feel that her passing was untimely, and her family rises up to call her blessed. With clear mind and firm faith she serenely passed into the other life.

M. E. KETCHAM.

MRS. MARY ELLA HINES.

Mary Ella Ogden was born near Old Bethel Church, Clermont County, Ohio, November 30, 1835. In early girlhood she united with the Methodist Episcopal Church, giving herself to the Lord, and it was a complete dedication and consecration of a life to the Master's service. She taught school for several years in and near Cincinnati and in Batavia, devoting much of her spare time to mission work under the auspices of the church in which she worshiped.

On November 29, 1866, she was married to Rev. William E. Hines, of the Cincinnati Conference, and for twenty-six years they shared life together, six years of which were spent in the active work. She was well fitted for a Methodist minister's wife and made a splendid mother to Rev. Hines' two sons, George and Charles. When Rev. Hines could no longer do the required work of the active ranks he superannuated and they made their home in Williamsburg, Ohio, and through years of suffering and weakness she was his loving companion and nurse until he was crowned in 1892.

Always interested in the world-wide work of the Savior, she improved every opportunity to help others, always trying to find the good in everyone. She was a life member of the Cincinnati Branch of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society, and for years was a great worker in the church and Sunday school until the loss of her hearing deprived her of this privilege. But living alone and deprivations did not make her gloomy. She was ever bright and cheerful and wore a smile that was like sunshine to all who came in contact with her. She had such a strong and courageous faith and she would smile through her tears as with radiant expression she declared how good the Lord was and how glorious it was to live in his faith. A visit to her home was always a wonderful inspiration for it brought God nearer to us and made heaven more real.

She went to her heavenly home on June 10, 1919, being well on her way to the eighty-fifth milestone. Funeral services were held in the Williamsburg Methodist Episcopal church, conducted by her pastor, Rev. Thos. F. Smith, assisted by Rev. R. F. Edwards, pastor of the local Presbyterian church. Rev. J. E. H. Sentman was also in attendance.

Those surviving her are Dr. Geo. Hines and son Harry, of Williamsburg; two brothers, Joseph H. and George Knight; nine nieces and five nephews. "Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord from henceforth: Yea, saith the Spirit, that they may rest from their labors; and their works do follow them." Her works not only fitted her for the joys of the Lord, but remain a perpetual inspiration in the lives of those who knew and associated with her. Interment in Williamsburg cemetery. T. F. S.

MRS. LUCY JAMES.

Mrs. Lucy James, widow of the late Evan P. James, for many years an acceptable and faithful pastor of the old Cincinnati Conference, now West Ohio, passed from her earthly home from the residence of her daughter, Mrs. Reed, in Akron, Ohio, on the 30th day of May, 1919. For twenty-six years she was the very efficient helpmeet of her husband in many fields of service, and very largely contributed to his years of success in the ministry. No one knows better than the faithful wife of the parsonage the many perplexing and annoying questions that come to the ministry for solution, and how often she suffers in silence for the good of the kingdom. Upon the retirement of Bro. James from the effective ranks, they took up their residence in Delaware, and in every way manifested a profound interest in the work of the church, and by wise counsel and hearty co-operation helped to the measure of their ability on all lines, regular in their attendance upon all the means of the sanctuary and faithful to every interest of the church and kingdom.

She was laid to rest in the beautiful Oakwood Cemetery at Delaware, by the side of her husband, who had preceded her to the glory land by ten years, after appropriate services were held under direction of her pastor, Rev. A. G. Schatzman, of the William Street Church, assisted by Drs. R. H. Walker and C. B. Austin, of the Ohio Wesleyan University, who paid most beautiful tributes to her helpful and consistent Christian living. Thus we mark the departure of this good mother, one of the most consistent Christians of the church. She is survived by one son, Dr. J. K. James, and two daughters, Mrs. E. S. Mettler, of Delaware, and Mrs. Howard Reed, of Akron, Ohio. Her children rise up and call her blessed.

A. G. SCHATZMAN.

MRS. ELEANOR JOSEPHINE KALBFUS.

On October 13, 1918, Mrs. Eleanor Josephine Kalbfus, the widow of the late Rev. C. H. Kalbfus, passed to her reward. Born in Lawrenceburg, Indiana, February 8, 1849. She was twice united in marriage; in 1872 she was married to Benj. F. Goss, and in August, 1889, to the Rev. C. H. Kalbfus. She was a lovely woman and the slightest contact with her was elevating. She was an ideal helpmeet for a minister, and could win her way into the hearts of all she desired to reach. A woman of above the average, she graced and braced the ministry of her husband in a multitude of ways. Frail of body rendered her the ready mark of the common afflictions, yet they seemed but to fashion her body into porcelain frailty and her soul into thrice refined silver. A born optimist, she carried the radiant beams wherever she went. The death of her husband was a rude shock to her, yet she never complained, and when her last sickness overtook her she had a strange presentiment that she would not survive. Yet she calmly waited her Lord's time, which came on Sunday, October 13—a fit day for so rare a demise.

The funeral services were quiet, being held at the residence. Rev. C. W. Horn preached the sermon, and several of the brethren from Springfield willingly assisted the pastor in the conduct of the service. She is survived by a sister, Mrs. Mary Bucheit; three sons, some nephews, and a host of friends and neighbors. Her remains were laid to rest beside her husband in Glen Forest Cemetery, Yellow Springs. GEO. W. MATHESON.

MRS. SUSAN BELL NEWTON.

Mrs. Susan Beatty Bell, widow of the late Rev. Isaac Newton, D.D., was born near Sandusky, Ohio, January 6, 1834, and passed to her reward on the evening of July 3, 1919, having attained the advanced age of eighty-five years. She was educated in the public schools of Sandusky and Berea College. After completing her studies at Berea she spent one year as instructor in the grammar school of Marion, Ohio, where she met her life companion, the Rev. Isaac Newton, then a student in the Ohio Wesleyan University and substitute pastor of the Methodist Episcopal Church at Marion.

On October 2, 1856, these two congenial spirits were united in holy wedlock in the Methodist Episcopal Church, Marion, and entered at once the itinerant ministry. For forty years they served faithfully and successfully the following important charges: Delphos; Greenville; Bucyrus; St. Johns, Toledo; Kenton; Bellefontaine (twice); Trinity, Lima; William Street, Delaware; one term presiding elder, Delaware District; Sidney; Delta; and West Toledo (now Collingwood). In all these years Mrs. Newton bore her share of the burdens and did her part of the work, winning many hearts by her beautiful life, in which was exemplified all the Christian virtues. The last few years of her life were years of great suffering, and for eighteen months previous to her death she was confined to her bed. But through it all she was patient and uncomplaining.

She is survived by a sister, Mrs. Malissa Hane, of Marion, Ohio; and by two daughters, Mary Amelia, a teacher in the Toledo public schools, and Anna Bell, associate Professor of English in the Kansas State Normal College.

The funeral services were held in her late home, 139 Rockingham Street, Toledo, Ohio, on Saturday, July 5, conducted by the Rev. E. E. McCammon, District Superintendent, assisted by the Revs. F. E. Higbie, L. H. Gressley, and W. M. Harford. The body was laid beside that of her husband in the cemetery at Marion, Ohio, the services at the grave being conducted by the Rev. Jesse Swank. E. E. McCammon.

MRS. M. G. PURKHISER.

Susannah Purkhiser, daughter of Noah and Nancy Glascock, was born in Highland County, Ohio, April 12, 1831. She was united in marriage May 25, 1867, to Rev. M. G. Purkhiser, an honored member of the old Ohio and Cincinnati Conferences from 1835 to 1876, when death called him home. To this union three children were born: Benjamin Noah, who died in infancy; Nancy Susan, who died August 29, 1894, and Martha Ida, who is left to mourn the loss of a devoted Christian mother.

Mrs. Purkhiser united with the Methodist Church and was converted under the ministry of Rev. Jacob Holmes at Boston, Highland County, Ohio, and was a member of the church almost eighty years. Her greatest delight was in the services of her church and in all work to advance the kingdom. Her home was always open to her ministers and she gave them unbounded loyalty. She never allowed a word of criticism of the "preacher" in her home, believing as she did that he was God's messenger. Although deprived of church attendance for a number of years, she never lost her love for the church and its work; her faith and trust never wavered, but grew stronger as she neared her home. Having committed to memory in early life large portions of the Bible, she spent many otherwise lonely hours recalling the promises found there, and the teachings of her Saviour. Deprived of her sight here for more than fifteen years, by faith we believe she is to-day beholding the glories of the Father's kingdom. In the early morning of April 21, 1919, God called her home.

The funeral services were conducted by her pastor, Rev. Charles Bennett, from her late home in Hillsboro, Ohio, and her body was laid to rest in the Hillsboro cemetery. Charles Bennett.

MRS. LAVERDE B. SMITH.

Nettie Reece, daughter of Morgan and Lucinda Reece, was born at Bucyrus, Ohio, October 29, 1874, and died July 27, 1919. In very early childhood, before the evil days had come, under the influence of a Christian home and church, she gave her heart and life to Christ and at once united with the Methodist Episcopal Church at Bucyrus, Ohio.

September 13, 1903, she was united in marriage to Rev. L. B. Smith. Immediately following the wedding they left for the session of Conference at Findlay, receiving their first appointment together at Scott, Ohio. Through sixteen years she has been a true and devoted helpmeet to a Methodist minister. She was peculiarly fitted in temperament and training for the place she so well and gracefully filled. A teacher in the public schools at North Baltimore, Ohio, she naturally fell into this larger sphere of usefulness with a charming grace and sweetness of disposition which was deeply telling in the various channels of Christian activity. A character so tender, so solicitous for the comfort and welfare of all with whom she came in touch, so responsive to any call of need, all these qualities sweetened and chastened by the glorious presence of the loving spirit of God, combined to make her life a potent factor for good. She fully realized the needs of the race.

To bless their life and cheer their home God gave them two children, Raymond Joyce, who died in infancy, and Helen Joy, who still survives. Those of the immediate family are her mother, Mrs. Lucinda Reece; her husband, Rev. L. B. Smith, and daughter, Helen Joy; one sister, Mrs. Rev. B. A. Fahl, of Buffalo, North Dakota; and two brothers, C. E. and F. G.

Reece, both of Bucyrus. She was intensely interested in the great Centenary enterprise, and the last time she held a pen to write, a few days before her death, she asked for pen and check book, signed her name to the check for the Centenary for $150, her own fund.

Funeral services were held at her mother's home in Bucyrus, Ohio, conducted by District Superintendent E. E. McCammon and W. J. Hagerman, assisted by Rev. Miller, of Bucyrus, and the United Brethren minister of that city. WM. J. HAGERMAN.

MRS. JAMES STEPHENSON.

Mrs. Nancy Ellen Stephenson, relict of Rev. James Stephenson, died at her home in Hartwell, Ohio, Thursday evening, July 31, 1919, aged seventy-four years, six months, and twenty-six days. She was the daughter of John and Amanda Horne, and was born in Xenia, Ohio, January 5, 1845.

On the 20th day of August, 1867, she was happily married to Rev. James Stephenson, an honored member of the Cincinnati Conference. The marriage was solemnized by Bishop T. A. Morris in Trinity Methodist Episcopal Church, Xenia, Ohio. Beautiful indeed was the mutual devotion which crowned the thirty-one years of their wedded life. Mrs. Stephenson experienced her greatest sorrow when, on the 4th day of September, 1898, the beloved husband by whose side she had walked in ideal comradeship, sharing the joys and heroically bearing the toils of the itinerant life, passed to his crown.

She is survived by seven children: four sons, namely, John H., of Chicago; James I., of Cincinnati; William S., of Philadelphia, and Benjamin W., of Buffalo, N. Y.; the last named has recently returned from military service abroad. The three daughters are Mrs. Austin Jones, of Wilmington, Ohio, and Misses Bertha and Ruth, who have remained by their mother, their ministry of filial devotion proving a comfort far greater than they can estimate to the afflicted pilgrim in her declining years. Mrs. Stephenson was richly endowed by nature, by culture, and by grace with those finer qualities which constitute true Christian character. Her education was received in several select private schools and in Xenia Female Seminary, of which institution she was a graduate.

She was a woman of wholesome religious life. Having been brought up amid an environment favorable to culture of heart as well as mind, she faithfully reflected these benign influences in a life of true devotion to Christ and the church. She was gifted with an unusually sweet voice and a talent for music, which she freely used for the promotion of the kingdom of Christ. She was actively identified with the great moral movements of her day; an influential leader and ardent supporter of the Woman's Crusade. She threw her whole life into the work of the church, and every parish served by her husband testifies to the strong impulse received from her Christlike life and work. She was of a uniformly happy, optimistic, and hopeful disposition. "Her faith was sublime." For about three years she had been in indifferent health, but most patiently did she bear the limitations imposed by her affliction. She died in great peace.

After appropriate services, conducted by Rev. T. W. Salt, D.D., assisted by Revs. W. A. Robinson, D.D., and J. S. Tull, the remains were laid to rest in Glendale Cemetery. T. W. SALT.

MRS. E. S. WEAVER.

The parsonage is not immune to sorrow and pain and death. On Thursday, December 12, 1918, Della A. Weaver passed from her home at Springfield, Ohio, to that other home in the city of God. No braver battle was ever fought in the interest of one's health than was made in her behalf. The highest medical skill was secured, and every known resource was utilized, but the disease could not be mastered. Through the long months of suffering and anxiety the people of High Street Church poured out their affection and sympathy along every channel of helpfulness.

Della (Ahlefeld) Weaver was born in Wyandot County, Ohio, near Upper Sandusky, January 10, 1874. She was united in marriage to Rev. E. S. Weaver, D.D., August 17, 1905, at Continental, Ohio. To this union three children were born—Helen, Edward, and Thomas. Mrs. Weaver was a great soul—a radiant personality. Her life was transparent. The elements were so blended as to give her a character of unusual poise and charm. The physical, intellectual, and spiritual were so evenly balanced that the net result was a beautiful and noble symmetry. She reveled in life—in the "wild joys of living."

As wife and mother in the home, efficient worker in the church, faithful servant and friend in the community, she marched through life leaving a trail of goodness and mercy behind her. To her husband she was vastly more than a helper. In her he ever found a tower of strength and an unfailing source of guidance and inspiration. No one ever had a stronger desire to live than she had. For this there was every incentive. Husband, children, church, friends—all these made strong appeal to her to remain on this side. In compensation for her seemingly premature departure she was granted a preview of heaven. It was given her to eat of the hidden manna before she entered into that which is within the veil. As the earthly attachments were severed the tendrils of her spirit were fastened securely to the Great White Throne. Life here lost none of its charm for her. But the life beyond called with a new emphasis. For her this meant reconciliation, peace, and victory. Death was overcome of life. The sick-room was transfigured and the falling tears were shot through with the light of eternity. People with fresh sorrows came that she might minister to them. No home-going could be more tender and withal more triumphant.

The funeral service was held in High Street Church, Sunday afternoon, December 15, in charge of the District Superintendent, Dr. W. A. Wiant. The message was based on the text chosen by Mrs. Weaver: "Father, I will that those whom thou hast given me be with me where I am." She was faithful unto death and to her belongs forever the crown of life.

W. A. Wiant.

MRS. DELIA LATHROP WILLIAMS.

On Saturday, March 15, 1919, there entered into rest one of the most widely known and best beloved workers in the Woman's Home Missionary Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church. Mrs. Delia Lathrop Williams before her marriage was principal of the Normal School at Albany, New York, and also of the Cincinnati Normal School. After her marriage to Prof. W. G. Williams, of the Ohio Wesleyan University, she taught in that institution in the department of History and English. She had thus made a wide circle of friends before she came into the service of this society. Here in the office of corresponding secretary she had endeared herself to the women of the auxiliaries as well as the officers of the society, and her departure from earth means a distinct personal loss to a multitude of friends.

The name of Mrs. Williams will be forever associated with that of the Woman's Home Missionary Society. It was in 1880 that Mrs. Williams first joined the society, upon the personal invitation of Mrs. John Davis, the president, who coveted for the young society the loyal devotion of women of such gifts and attainments of mind and heart as Mrs. Williams possessed. Throughout the rest of her life the work of the Woman's Home Missionary Society became her chief joy. As an officer she served longer than any other, first in the capacity of treasurer. For many years she was a member of the Board of Trustees. For fifteen years she was Corresponding Secretary, resigning that office in 1914. Her resignation carried with it no abatement of interest in the work she loved so well, and she was faithful to the last in the discharge of her duties as secretary of the Bureau for White Work in Tennessee. The last two years were spent in Cincinnati with her son. Geo. L. Williams. In his beautiful home she was the center of a devoted circle of children and grandchildren, and her presence in such meetings as she felt able to attend was a joy and inspiration.

Mrs. Williams was honored by the Central Ohio Conference by an election as delegate to the General Conference of 1912, and was always recognized as a leader among Methodist women. She was a clear and logical speaker, with a pleasing address and a gift of expression which made both her written and spoken words interesting. She stood for a high type of spirituality expressed in practical deeds and helpful words, and will long be remembered for the personal touch which pervaded her work as corresponding secretary.

The funeral services were held in Cincinnati, the burial being in Delaware, Ohio, the old home of Prof. and Mrs. Williams.

WOMAN'S HOME MISSIONS.

MRS. JAMES NEWTON EASON

Mrs. James Newton Eason was born in Hartford, Michigan, April 11, 1868, and died in the parsonage in Richwood, Ohio, July 22, 1919. She was the daughter of John and Mary Penrod, members of the Friends Church. At the age of sixteen she was converted and united with the Methodist Episcopal Church. She was united in marriage to the Rev. James Newton Eason in 1891. Five children were born to them, four of whom, with the father, survive to mourn not as those who have no hope, but in joyful anticipation of reunion in the land of the ever-living. One daughter, Mrs. Robert Young, preceded her mother to the saints' everlasting rest by more than three years. The surviving children are Mrs. Clara Bell Griffin, a missionary in India; Mrs. L. L. Rummel, of Cleveland; Frank Eason, of the United States army, now stationed in Honolulu, Hawaii, and Dale T. Eason, of Columbus, Ohio.

Mrs. Eason was a devout woman, full of faith and good works. For thirty-six years she faithfully, efficiently, and conspicuously served the Master. For three years she was a worker in the Pacific Garden Mission, Chicago. In all of her husband's charges she contributed much to the success achieved. Notable among these pastorates are Litchfield, Ill.; Greenville, O.; Jackson, O.; Bigelow, Portsmouth, O.; North Church, Columbus, O.; Trinity, Louisville, Ky. Failing health prevented her from exercising her usual helpful ministries in Richwood. Here, however, she was the recipient of many kindly attentions, and these ministries to her by the people of the church were gratefully received. She has gone

> "To join the choir invisible
> Of those immortal dead
> Who live again in minds
> Made better by their presence.
> . . . . . .
> To be the sweet presence
> Of a good diffused,
> And in diffusion evermore intense."

Funeral services were held in the church in Richwood, July 25, 1919. They were conducted by the Rev. William McKendree Brackney, D.D., assisted by Revs. E. A. Strother and J. A. Hoffman, and the writer of this memoir. Many ministers of the West Ohio and Ohio Conferences were in attendance.

EDWARD RUSSELL STAFFORD.

MRS. L. A. BANKS

Mrs. Jessie Ainsworth Banks, wife of Dr. Louis Albert Banks, died at the family residence in Brookline, Mass., on Wednesday, July 9. She and Dr. Banks were married on January 1, 1884, and she was held in highest esteem by the people of the various charges, East and West, in which her husband served as pastor. The funeral services were conducted by Dr. Willis P. Odell, superintendent of Boston District. In recent years she held her church membership in Saint Mark's Church, Brookline.—Christian Advocate.

(The Secretary regrets his inability to secure a full memoir; all efforts have failed. Also of Mrs. Henry Stokes.—V. F. B.)

PREACHERS' WIVES' ASSOCIATION.

The seventh annual gathering of the Preachers' Wives' Association was a most delightful occasion. One hundred and two sat down at the tables and partook of a most substantial four-course lunch, after which toasts were responded to by Mrs. W. D. Cole, Mrs. John Duckwall, Mrs. J. B. Ascham, Mrs. M. E. Ketcham, Mrs. S. K. Mahon, Mrs. E. H. Snow, and Mrs. Bishop Anderson. Mrs. J. P. Simmonds and Mrs. Ross Wetherald delighted all with musical numbers. Mrs. C. M. Van Pelt, the President, extended greetings at the opening, and Mrs. C. C. Peale acted as toastmistress. A new feature was the attractive program found at each plate. A short business session closed the evening's program. Mrs. W. D. Cole and Mrs. John Duckwall were appointed by the chair a committee to select the officers for the coming year.
